

Optimizing Health by Advancing the Quality of Medication Use

PQA Measure Development Team 16 (MDT 16): Objectives and Selection Criteria

The objective for the PQA MDT 16 is to develop specifications for a measure concept evaluating appropriate medication use to prevent cardiovascular outcomes in persons with diabetes. This measure concept is intended for health plan performance comparisons.

Preference will be given to applicants who:

- Have relevant clinical expertise and experience in diabetes management, cardiovascular disease;
- Represent an organization with interest in/programs that evaluate diabetes outcomes;
- Have measure development experience;
- Understand administrative claims data that would be needed to calculate the measure; and/or
- Possess analytic expertise.

Information Required for Application:

- Name
- Credentials
- Phone
- Email
- Title
- Organization Name
- PQA Member Key Contact Name
- PQA Member Key Contact Email
- PQA Experience: Please describe your past PQA experience (if any), such as with workgroups, measure development teams, task forces, or panels. Please also list the duration served and any leadership roles you have held within these groups (e.g., serving as co-chair; feasibility and/or pilot testing of measure concepts/draft measures).
- CV
- Bio (Max 300 words. Include relevant information that describes your qualifications for being a member of the Measure Development Team.)