The Jackson Madison County African American Chamber of Commerce (JMCAACC) is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization which was founded in 1999 as the African American Business Coalition. Our mission is the growth and development of member businesses, youth entrepreneurial development and economic and community development in the Jackson Madison County and surrounding areas as a whole.

Your support of the Follow Me Celebrity Golf Classic will provide funding for students in our Follow Me Into Business® youth development program which provides business basics, hands-on job skills and community service training for ages 12-18. The 8-week Summer Program offers workshops, internships and paid job opportunities during June and July. Nearly 600 young people have participated since the program began in 2002.

We are delighted that Ted Austin, Vice-President at Jackson Energy Authority and Charley Deal, Associate Vice Chancellor at the University of Tennessee at Martin, are returning as 2017 Tournament Co-chairs. Working with them as Celebrity Co-chair is Lane College Athletic Director and former NFL player Derrick Burroughs. Go team go!
