YK Communications Controller John Shutt Announces Retirement

The company has promoted Kirby Kacer to fill the position beginning January 1, 2018

DECEMBER 15, 2017 - YK Communications has just announced the retirement of John Shutt, who has served as the company's controller since 2007.

Shutt earned his BBA in Accounting from Sam Houston State University and has been a CPA for more than three decades. YK Communications became one of his clients in the early 80s, and he came on board as the company's controller ten years ago.

YK Communications thanks Shutt for his years of exceptional service. "John Shutt has been an incredible asset to our company and we look forward to him continuing to work with us on special projects," said Russell Kacer, president at YK Communications.

The company has also announced the promotion of Kirby Kacer, who is a fourth-generation member of management at YK Communications. He will be the new controller beginning on January 1, 2018.

Kacer is a CPA who holds a BBA in Accounting from Sam Houston State University and a Master of Science in Accounting from Trinity University. He was hired on at YK Communications in 2016 as an accountant, and his previous career experience includes AT&T; Bumgardner, Morrison, & Company, LLP; and PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP.

In his new role, Kacer will serve as the chief accounting officer at YK Communications. His responsibilities will include financial statements, payroll, tax compliance, and various aspects of accounting that are crucial to the company's continued success.

The team at YK Communications is thrilled to see Kacer fill the position as controller. "We are excited to see Kirby grow in his new role as controller at YK Communications," said Russell Kacer.
