

Come Creative Spirit...

The Liturgical Arts Festival of Springfield

An Interfaith Celebration of the Arts

May 6-15, 2022

www.lafspringfield.org

Friday, May 6th 7:00 pm

First Friday Concert Series

Mark Gifford

Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception
524 E. Lawrence Ave.

Saturday, May 7th 4:30–6:30 pm

Liturgical & Sacred Art Exhibit and Reception

A Nationwide Juried Art Exhibit
Springfield Art Association
700 N. Fourth St.
Exhibition open from April 20th—May 28

Monday, May 9th

6:00 pm

Color and Light: Windows to the Soul

Display/Tour of Chapel's Stain-Glass Windows

7:00 pm

Reading Light: Sacred Art and Architecture

Lecture by Historian Anthony Rubano
Aquinas Hall
Sacred Heart Convent Chapel
1237 W. Monroe St.

Tuesday, May 10th

6:00 pm

Wedding Arts and Apparel Display

7:00 pm

To Love and To Cherish

A Concert of Wedding Music
American Guild of Organists & Temple Israel Choir
Cathedral Church of St Paul
815 S. Second St.

Friday, May 13th 6:00 pm

"In the Blink of an Eye": Celebrating Life's Journey

A Theatrical Presentation of Spoken Word and Music

Leigh Steiner and Phil Funkenbusch

First Presbyterian Church
321 S. Seventh St.

Saturday, May 14th 7:00-9:00 pm

When Night Falls:

Celebrations of Life and Death

Showcasing the Lincoln Hearse (PJ Staab II)

Timothy Krause collection of Funerary objects

Music, Poetry, Reception

Staab Funeral Home
1109 S. Fifth St.

Sunday, May 15th 6:00 pm

Nothing to Be Afraid of: New Orleans Jazz Funeral

Parade & Concert

Frank Parker band and Mark McKnight

First Christian Church
700 S. Sixth St.

All Events are free to the Public

STAAB is a Proud Sponsor of LAFS2022

Liturgical Arts Festival of Springfield is an interfaith celebration of the arts.

What are "liturgical arts"?

Liturgical arts are cultural expressions of creativity, beauty, and community life: music, dance, drama, poetry, architecture, and visual art. LAFS is inspired by the beautiful diversity of faith traditions within our own community.