

THI and ACN

What if there was a way you could shop for the same quality services you already have, from Brand Name providers that you trust; all at great prices in a single place. And even better get some of them for free.

You can get monthly services for home or business that you already pay for through THI's ACN Online Storefront; High Speed Internet, Digital and Analog Phone, Wireless, Television, Home Security and Automation, Gas, Electricity and even Credit Card Processing. THI is an affiliate member of ACN. ACN has partnered up with the best providers of services you already pay for every month and provide them at outstanding prices. Fill out our online survey at: <http://texashealthinstitute.services4u.com> and we'll do the rest.

The best part of it is every time you pay your bills you are doing something great by feeding hungry kids! Here is our reality: Childhood hunger is an epidemic. Through ACN's Project Feeding Kids program, we're doing our part to help end childhood hunger for good!

It's that simple. And these are services consumers are already using and spending money on month after month, services most people can't live without.

There is no cost to switch and no interruption in service. Please visit THI's online store at www.thi.acnpartner.com.
