

Junior AP English Language and Composition: 2023 Summer Assignment

Welcome students! Your assignment heading into Junior AP English Language and Composition is as follows:

1. Buy a PHYSICAL and CLEAN (no notes or annotations) copy of Killers of the Flower Moon by David Grann,
2. Carefully and closely read the book for the first day of class, and
3. Be ready to discuss the book/write about the book in detail.

Keep in mind, you do not have to annotate this summer, but feel free to do so if you'd like. We're going to learn some new annotating methods at the beginning of the year, and we'll be using the text to practice. Come prepared to discuss your thoughts and reflections about the text, and have specific examples in mind that you can refer to when necessary.

If you need help acquiring a copy of the book, PLEASE let either of us (Ms. Haxton or Mr. Goeller) know! The English Department has free copies available to any student that needs one. You can email us at emilyh@spokaneschools.org or gregg@spokaneschools.org, or find us in our classrooms (Haxton = 223, Goeller = 233).

We look forward to discussing this fascinating text with you all next fall; enjoy!
