X. CONGREGATIONAL DYNAMICS/DEALING WITH CONFLICT

Many congregations experience conflict at various times. Characterize your congregation's experience with conflict given the following possibilities. Indicate the extent to which each statement describes your congregation: C= closely, S= somewhat, N= not at all.

C	As a church, we respect and listen to each other and work things through without generating divisiveness.
S	As a church, we try to respect and listen to each other, but it is not uncommon for differences of opinion to be a problem and for some people to choose sides.
N	Some have left our church because of conflict.
N	Conflict hurts our sense of unity, but we tend not to talk about it.
S	Painful experience with conflict has been present, but it has been worked through, and we have learned from the experience.
N	We have had some painful experiences with conflict, and they linger in the background.
N	Open conflict is present, and we need a minister who can help us deal with it.

	Comments: We tend to handle conflict well, preferring to work through challenges together quickly before they become a big problem.

XI. CONGREGATIONAL DISCERNMENT

The following questions are beneficial to a process of discernment that helps you look at yourself and also provide important information to your candidates. It is our hope that you'll spend significant time in reflecting on these ten questions prior to you providing the answers on this form. You may likely want to involve discussion of them in various congregational venues to provide the Search Committee with a breadth of input. Discuss with your Regional Minister how this might be accomplished. We are encouraging answers on the Congregational Profile that are both succinct and well thought through.

1. What has God uniquely called you to be and do as a congregation (both now, and looking to the future)?
Win people to faith in Jesus Christ and commit them actively to the church, to help them grow in the grace and knowledge of Christ that increasingly they may know and do his will, and to work for the unity of all Christians and with them to engage in the common task of building the kingdom of God.

2. Describe the processes you used to hear God's unique call for your congregation.
This congregation's leaders are deeply involved in community and church life. They also participated in completing the Ministry Blueprint tool which provided an opportunity to take a comprehensive look at the makeup, mission, and future opportunities of the congregation and the community.

3. Describe the Spiritual Disciplines that are regularly practice throughout this congregation.
Prayer, Scripture study, worship

4. Describe your sense of God's covenantal call to be a part of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and broader ecumenical/interfaith ministries.

We share in the call to welcome to the table of the Lord all who claim Jesus as their Lord and Savior. We work well with all Christians within our geographic area.
5. In what ways have members of the congregation been engaged in the Search and Call discernment process? We have reached out to the Regional Minister for assistance and have met with him, worked on the Ministry Blueprint, and reviewed results with him. What we have learned about ourselves is reflected in this profile.
6. What are the ministry opportunities you see in your particular context? What are the resources and gifts you have within the congregation to respond to these opportunities (including particular talents represented by members of the congregation; financial and other resources you have; the traditions you have manifested over the years)? Relationships in our rural community are important to us. We know and care for each other and our neighbors. Recently we built and paid for an enclosed shelter at a small park that we own on the church campus. Our goal is to offer that space for use by nonprofit organizations, wedding receptions, family reunion celebrations, etc.
7. Describe the congregation's strengths and growing edges. We have been actively serving our community for a long time and we are known for our hospitality and care for our community. We are at our best when responding to individual and community needs. Change happens a little slower here in the rural countryside. We adapt but do so carefully. Our youth, like many others, have competing commitments on the weekends and weeknights. Keeping up with technology has become a higher priority as is making more and better connections with youth and younger families and absent congregation members that are not participating in church.
8. Describe the ways you make decisions and carry them out as a congregation. Our congregational board makes most decision regarding oversight of day-to-day operations. Major decisions are made by the congregation.
9. How is this congregation relevant to the needs of (a) the local community, (b) Disciples mission, and (c) the world? We believe in promoting the unity of all Christians as we serve our community. We support outreach efforts locally and globally regardless of denominational affiliation.
10. How does this congregation bear witness in tangible ways to God's healing, welcoming, reconciling presence in a broken world? We welcome all. We respect and honor one another. We share the love of God in tangible, supportive ways.
XII. GOALS OF THE CONGREGATION FOR THE NEXT FIVE YEARS List four. Attach recent congregational mission statement and goals if available.
1. Grow in membership so that we can sustain this ministry well into the future
2. Improve our digital presence in the community
3. Grow our youth ministry

XV. DISCERNING AREAS OF GREATEST NEED FOR MINISTERIAL LEADERSHIP
The list below is based on the requirements found in Theological Foundations and Policies and Criteria for the Ordering of Ministry of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). It is used for describing a minister's areas of skill and expertise (which you will observe on the Ministerial Profiles you receive). It is expected that all ministers will demonstrate competency in each of these areas, but will excel in some more than others. Part of the Search & Call process is discerning a good match between the skills of the pastor and the needs of the congregation. In light of where growth is desired and God is calling you, please indicate the top 4 skills needed in your next pastor.

XVII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

(Please use space below or attach your documentation to this packet)

We are open to a full-time ministry if the person called is also willing to provide guidance and assistance with our youth ministry. We will also consider a part-time pastor and a part-time youth minister. We anticipate that the minister who is called will divide up his or her compensation total in a way that they think best. Additional items such as vacation and reimbursable expenses are negotiable. We have not been in a search and call process with the help of our Region for several years, nor have we connected with the Region much until now. We desire to be in partnership and we are working with our Regional Minister to begin to rebuild our relationship with the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ)
