

Reconciliation Ministry and the Greater Kansas City Region of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in the United States and Canada invite Disciples with gifts for teaching to become equipped to lead Anti-Racism workshops.

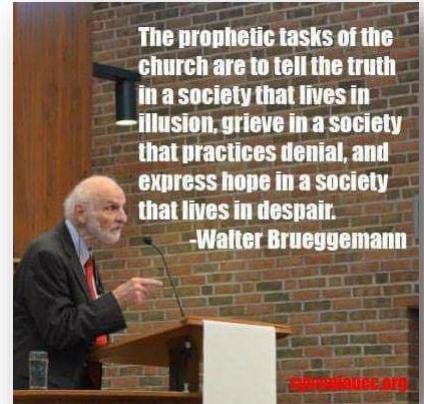

Prospective trainers must have completed this two and a half day Anti-Racism workshop given by Reconciliation Ministry in order to attend the three day Train the Trainer workshop that we will co-host May 6-8. Both workshops will be held at the Tall Oaks Conference Center in Linwood, Kansas. Both may satisfy requirements for renewing clergy standing.

Introduction to the Analysis of Racism

If we are ever to become an anti-racist/pro-reconciling church it is important that we know how to differentiate between systemic racism and personal bias.

Systemic racism is deeply woven into the fabric of North American culture and the Church is not immune to its influence.

Learn how systemic racism operates, the violence it inflicts, and how power is used to keep it going to the advantage of the privileged. Participants will also explore ways to identify and challenge the operation of systemic racism within themselves, our Church, and in the communities we serve.

February 25-27, 2019. $130 includes six meals. Lodging for two nights at Tall Oaks is $120. Commuters are welcome. Limited to 40 participants
