Job Description
ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Provide spiritual guidance, leadership, and support to the region and Commission during this time of transition. Conduct a listening campaign of the Commission members, church planters, clergy and lay leaders. Identify strengths and weaknesses of the current iteration of the Ministry Innovation Commission. Facilitate the discernment of the Commission's identity, purpose, and vision. Provide recommendations for how Innovation and Church Planting can be more deeply integrated into the region. Coordinate with New Church ministries of the General Church to provide the latest information about successful ministry models, practices, and standards. Manage the Commission's activities: organize meetings, manage projects, identify action items, gracefully hold Commission members accountable to their commitments. Advocate for Church Planting and Transformation within the Region's visioning process.

- Work alongside the Regional Minister with churches in the search and call process, helping them identify ways the commission can help them transform or innovate.

QUALIFICATIONS AND EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

- Minimum 5 years experience which includes significant work in new and/or transforming church ministry
- Special training in new church planting. Additional training in church transformation and innovation is a plus

PREFERRED SKILLS

- Studies in theology

ADDITIONAL NOTES

- This interim position does not require clergy standing but clergy who apply should be in good standing with their denomination. Lay professionals may apply.
- Length of contract will be for approximately nine months.
- To apply, please send cover letter and resume or ministerial profile to:
 - Rev. William Rose-Heim, Regional Minister and President, Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Greater Kansas City, 9401 Johnson Drive, Merriam, Kansas 66203 or to billrh@kcdisciples.org
- Applications will be reviewed by the Commission on Ministry Innovation before interviews with candidates are requested
