CENTER FOR RELIGION IN PUBLIC LIFE

The Next One from Many Service YouTube Premiere is 5 p.m. Oct. 25

The next One from Many service premieres on YouTube at 5 p.m. Oct. 25. Join Oklahoma Center for Community and Justice's Moises Echeverria and Phillips Center for Religion in Public Life's Gary Peluso-Verdend as they bring together diverse voices and artists around the idea of E Pluribus Unum, One from Many. CLICK FOR THE PREMIERE

One from Many is an interfaith service of hope for America's future, presented by the Center for Religion in Public Life and by the Oklahoma Center for Community and Justice.

The event welcomes people of spiritual and moral conviction who want to work side by side to ensure the U.S. motto E Pluribus Unum (One from Many), the Golden Rule, and the universal values of compassion and justice are more evident in American life.

Each gathering will be a service of encouragement and challenge. Participants will have the opportunity to enjoy performances and readings, songs, and reflect with Tulsa's interfaith community leaders.

One from Many is free and open to the public. For more information contact Dr. Gary Peluso-Verdend, Director of the Center for Religion in Public Life at Phillips. crpl@ptstulsa.edu

FYI... Did you know that the first image paired with the phrase E Pluribus Unum was a bouquet of flowers?
