Hymn LEVAS 189 Great is thy faithfulness

Faithfulness

Opening Acclamation

Prayer Book page 355

Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria (sung at 9:30 only)

S280

Robert Powell

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:

have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Proclaiming the Word

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and to give more than we either desire or deserve: Pour upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things for which we are not worthy to ask, except through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Savior; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Lamentations 1:1-6

Bible, p.797

How lonely sits the city that once was full of people!
How like a widow she has become,
she that was great among the nations!
She that was a princess among the provinces has become a vassal.
She weeps bitterly in the night,
with tears on her cheeks;
among all her lovers
she has no one to comfort her;
all her friends have dealt treacherously with her,
they have become her enemies.
Judah has gone into exile with suffering and hard servitude;
she lives now among the nations,
and finds no resting place;
her pursuers have all overtaken her in the midst of her distress.
The roads to Zion mourn,
for no one comes to the festivals;
all her gates are desolate,
her priests groan;
her young girls grieve,
and her lot is bitter.
Her foes have become the masters,
her enemies prosper,

because the LORD has made her suffer for the multitude of her transgressions;
her children have gone away,
captives before the foe.
From daughter Zion has departed all her majesty.
Her princes have become like stags that find no pasture;
they fled without strength before the pursuer.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 137 Please join in singing the Psalm.

- 1 By the waters of Babylon we sat down and wept, *
when we remembered you, O Zion.
- 2 As for our harps, we hung them up * on the trees in the midst of that land.
- 3 For those who led us away captive asked us for a song, and our oppressors called for mirth: *
"Sing us one of the songs of Zion."
- 4 How shall we sing the LORD'S song *
upon an alien soil.
- 5 If I forget you, O Jerusalem, *
let my right hand forget its skill.
- 6 Let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth
if I do not remember you, *
if I do not set Jerusalem above my highest joy.
- 7 Remember the day of Jerusalem, O LORD, against the people of Edom, * who said, "Down with it! down with it!
even to the ground!"
- 8 O Daughter of Babylon, doomed to destruction, * happy the one who pays you back for what you have done to us!
- 9 Happy shall he be who takes your little ones, *
and dashes them against the rock!

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus,

To Timothy, my beloved child:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

I am grateful to God-- whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did-- when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands; for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline.

Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God, who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. For this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher, and for this reason I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know the one in whom I have put my trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard until that day what I have entrusted to him. Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Please join in singing the hymn.

Sequence Hymn #659

O Master, let me walk with thee

THE HOLY GOSPEL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST ACCORDING TO Luke 17:5-10

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Bible, p.1021

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!" The Lord replied, "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you. "Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here at once and take your place at the table'? Would you not rather say to him, ‘Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink’? Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, ‘We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!’”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

The Rev. Dee Anne Dodd

The Nicene Creed

Prayer Book page 358

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made,
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

St. Paul's Prayer List

Bulletin page 12

A Litany According to St. Francis' Peace Prayer

Lord, make us instruments of your peace.

Where there is hatred,
let us sow love;

Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is discord, union.

Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;

Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy.

Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled,
as to console;

To be understood,
as to understand;

To be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;

ALL: And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. AMEN.

The Deacon or Celebrant says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Minister and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Bishop, when present, or the Priest, stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving (Eucharistic Prayer B)

Prayer Book page 367

The people remain standing. The Celebrant, whether bishop or priest, faces them and says

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus (sung at 9:30 only)

S 129

Robert Powell

Celebrant and People

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Then the Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Celebrant is to hold it, or to lay a hand upon it; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with Paul and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

A period of silence is kept.

Facing the people, the Celebrant says the following Invitation

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please follow the ushers' guidance for coming forward to receive communion in a socially distanced manner. You may request gluten-free wafers by turning your palms downward as you receive communion. If you do not wish to receive communion, please come to the altar for a blessing; this is indicated by crossing one's arms over the chest.

Communion Anthem All things bright and beautiful John Rutter

Text: C. F. Alexander (1823-1895)

Refrain:

All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.

Each little flow'r that opens,
Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colors,
He made their tiny wings.

Refrain

The purple-headed mountain,
The river running by,
The sunset and the morning,
That brightens up the sky;
The cold wind in the winter,
The pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruits in the garden,
He made them every one.

Refrain

He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips that we might tell
How great is God Almighty,
Who has made all things well.

Refrain

After Communion, the Celebrant says
Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Way of Love: Following Jesus & Changing the World - This week's word is: PRAY.

"While you are proclaiming peace with your lips, be careful to have it even more fully in your heart," said St. Francis – the same man who has a prayer attributed to him which begins with the petition: Lord, make us instruments of your peace. May we join him in this prayer through this week of his feast day (October 4) and always.

Thank you to all helping lead today's worship - Thank you to Helen Stowe for playing the flute today. Thank you to James Hunter for playing today's postlude on the piano. James is a student of our music director, James Lindsay. Thank you to Patti Cullen (8:00 crucifer/intercessor), Ray Rys (8:00 reader), Helen Stowe (9:30 crucifer), Wendy Oestreicher (9:30 reader), Carol Gervais (9:30 intercessor), Sharon Turlis & Nathalie Szilagyi (9:30 ushers) and the Tech Team for tech support.

Worship Signup Now Available - Please Sign up here to serve liturgically (as a reader, crucifer/carry cross, usher, etc.) or contact the parish office and Jen Parsons will sign you up for the appropriate role and date. Thank you!

Regathering Update: GREEN FOR GO! As we enter a busy fall season, we ask that you please look for GREEN stickers when choosing a pew to sit in. This should help provide healthy social distancing. Out of courtesy and care for all, we encourage wearing face masks especially while singing. Kid-friendly masks for children and youth are available at the entrances for those who wish to use them.

Adult Forum The Logbooks - This fall the Adult Forum will resume in-person meetings at 9:00 in the Common Room. As a complement to the upcoming Witness Stones workshop, we will be reading and discussing the book The Logbooks: Connecticut's Slave Ships and Human Memory, by Anne Farrow. All are welcome. Contact Amy Foster(foster9092@gmail.com) with questions or assistance in ordering the book.

October 1 & 2 is Celebrate Wallingford on North Main Street - St. Paul's has a booth in front of the church and will be handing out St Paul's tote bags, pens, pins and informational sheets. Volunteer signup sheets are on the easel in church. Any time you have to give later today is appreciated. For info contact Carole Ireland, 203-988-7405.

St. Francis Animal Blessing TODAY at 2:00 PM - Bring your favorite critters on a leash or in a carrier, please, and bring items to donate to Wallingford Animal Shelter! Invite friends!

Story Walk - Please join me for a story walk on Sunday, October 9, at Marcus Cooke Park (across from Rock Hill School). We will gather at 8:30 under the pavilion for our walk and then return to Wilkinson Hall by 9:30 for follow-up activities. This week's story will be Joseph and the Coat of Many Colors! If you are interested in joining me for this walk, please register with me at: asclepiashs@hotmail.com or text me at:203-848-7113. These walks are open to adults and children alike and will take place on the second Sunday of every month!--Helen Stowe

Church School meets at 9:30 in the parish hall Sunday, October 2, before coming into church to join their families for communion.

Choir - Now is a great time to join the Choir! Choir rehearsals are held on Thursdays from 7 - 9 pm. If you or someone you know is interested, please contact our music director Jay Lindsay at musicdirector@stpaulswallingford.org.

Choristers this fall - Plans are underway for the choristers to resume singing this fall! After taking a hiatus due to the Covid-19 pandemic, some reorganization will be necessary but our music director is determined to get young people of all ages singing! Right now we are in the planning stages, and would like to hear from any young people who are interested in singing. The exact rehearsal day/time and age range for the choristers will be determined once we have a clearer picture of who is interested in singing. All efforts will be made to include as many people as possible. High school age students who are interested may also be eligible for singing in the adult choir. If you or someone you know are in grades K - 12 and are interested in singing, please contact our music director, Jay Lindsay at (203-809-8771) or musicdirector@stpaulswallingford.org.

St. Paul's Nursery School/AmazonSmile.com - Looking for a way to support our preschool without spending any money? St. Paul's Nursery School has created an AmazonSmile account! When you register with AmazonSmile and choose our preschool, they will make donations on eligible purchases on your behalf to your chosen organization. There is no cost to you! Shop as you normally would, and Amazon will do the rest. Simply go to <https://smile.amazon.com/ch/06-1216077> to get started today!

Ordination and Consecration of the XVI Bishop Diocesan October 15 - This event will be live-streamed via ECCT's Youtube channel - watch parties are encouraged. Register to attend. COVID-19 Guidelines: Out of an abiding love of our neighbor, face masks and proof of vaccination will be required for attendance at the ordination and consecration service.

St. Paul's Harvest Fair Saturday, October 29th - After three years, St. Paul's Harvest Fair is coming back. Planning has started, vendors are signing up, but we'll need your help to make this Harvest Fair a success. Any time that you can give will be greatly appreciated. We will be making apple pies October 24-27th. Sign-up sheets for pie making, donations for items for the luncheon, and other items will be posted on the easel in the back of the church. If you are interested in helping at this fun event or have questions, please contact Sharon Rogalski (203-678-4824 or rogal156@comcast.net) or the following regarding specific areas:
