

Dr. Angela Crutchfield - Bio

Dr. Angela M. Crutchfield, MS is the owner of PESSCE Unlimited, LLC, an Executive Coaching, Lifestyle Coaching and Transformational HR Consulting practice. PESSCE offers Leadership Coaching, Transformational HR Best Practice Consultation including, Diversity and Inclusion, Organizational Effectiveness, Change Management and Lifestyle Coaching for Women.

Dr. Crutchfield recently served as Vice Chancellor for Talent and Chief Diversity Officer for the University of Mass Dartmouth and currently services as Diversity and Inclusion Director for Riverside Community Care in Boston. She delivers training programs around the country with SkillPath in public seminars, private onsite workshops and online delivery platforms. In addition, Dr. Crutchfield currently serves as a professional development adjunct faculty for Bristol Community College and Cape Cod Community College. She has held numerous past leadership positions and adjunct faculty across industries including healthcare, aerospace & defense and academia.

As a long-term Human Resources professional and Diversity & Inclusion practitioner, Dr. Crutchfield has a unique blend of human capital and organizational insight, people skills and tactical know-how that combine for delivery of exceptional personal coaching, training program design & delivery, and business consultation. With a vast client list, for over 20 years she has helped thousands of people achieve higher levels of success in the areas of leadership competencies.

Her unrivaled engaging style, sense of humor and motivational presentations, have earned rave reviews from audiences around the country. She demonstrates liveliness that reflects a matchless energy and style that is most impactful for learning and driving change in behavior. Dr. Crutchfield lives life based on personal passion to positively impact the lives of others.