

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES FOR 2016 ELECTION OF AGHE OFFICERS

Member-at-Large

Full name: Hallie Elizabeth Baker, Ph.D, LSW.

Current Position(s) and Title(s):

Associate Professor of Psychology

Post-Secondary Education (degrees, majors, institutions):

Ph.D. in Social Gerontology

Masters of Science in Family and Child Studies

Bachelor of Arts in Sociology and Social Work

Research Interests/Areas(s) of Specialization:

- Online pedagogy
- Aging with a disability throughout the life course
- Ethics of research and interventions
- Long-term care utilization and industry trends.

Publications (list three only):

- Baker, H. & Brown, P. "Teaching Retirement Financial Literacy in an Undergraduate Gerontology Classroom: Broadening the Concept of the Tripod or Three-Legged Stool of Retirement Income Utilizing Active Learning." (2015) Gerontology & Geriatrics Education. 36:(4), 416-424.

Published online: May 7, 2015. doi: 10.1080/02701960.2015.1031892.

- Baker, H. & Cole, K. (2015) ""Not another Google reference! Embedded librarian improve online student references." In Clay, M.N.; & Stone, J. (eds) Distance Learning Administration Annual & Conference Proceedings 2015; Carrollton; University of West Georgia.
- Baker, H. (2013) Aging with a Disability versus Disability with Age: A New Theoretical Model to Conceptualize Clients with Disability. LAP LAMBERT Academic Publishing

Professional Activities with AGHE and GSA (including committees & dates of service for the past 5 years only):

Association for Gerontology in Higher Education
Membership Committee 2016 –
Publication and Resources Committee 2016-
Co-coordinator Silent Auction 2013, 2015-

Other Relevant Activities (list no more than two):

I am currently working with Dr. Rona Karasik and Dr. Tina Kruger on an edited volume of classroom activities in Gerontology. We plan on turning over profits and work to AGHE once it is published.

Other Memberships and Affiliations (list no more than three):

Midwest Psychological Association
Gerontological Society of America