

Good morning,

My name is Nicolette Ware. I am the new Communications Specialist at Homestead Presbytery. I am pleased to be joining this organization and hope to get to know each one of you. If you would like to know a little more about me, please continue reading this. If not, you can find me at the Homestead Presbytery office inside Good Shepherd Presbyterian primarily on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings from 8-11.

I was born and raised in the Youngstown, Ohio area – Poland, Ohio to be exact. I resided there aside from a brief move to the Philadelphia area (Levittown) for a few years. My family moved to Nebraska two weeks before I started high school. I graduated from Lincoln Southwest and then attended and graduated from Nebraska Wesleyan University in May 2012 with a Bachelor of Arts in Social Work. Since graduation, I have worked in the medical and dental fields doing everything from reception and administrative work to billing and assisting on the clinical side of things. Since early 2015, I have worked as the Communications Specialist at Our Saviour's Lutheran Church. Growing up, I was baptized, raised, and confirmed in the Evangelical Lutheran Church.

In my free time, I enjoy yoga, gymnastics, dance, distance running, krav maga, spending time with my nieces and guinea pig (Paisley) as well as traveling. I have traveled to Canada, Armenia, France, Dominican Republic, and Belize so far and hope to have many more days of travel ahead of me. I am an advocate for Roma Rights, human trafficking awareness, and animal rights (I have been a vegetarian since the age of 12) in addition to supporting and working with burn victims and people recovering from eating disorders.
