

Arianna was born in Okinawa, Japan at Camp Lester Naval Hospital to Patrick and Kannika Hissom on June 14th, 2007. Her life was tragically cut short in the early morning of March 15th, 2026 in Sacramento, CA.

She is survived by her mother Kannika (Joyjinda) and her stepfather Michael Kodres, her father Patrick and stepmother Monique Hissom (Monteiro), her younger sister Sylvia Hissom, and her younger half-sister Alessandra Kodres.

After moving to California at the age of 12, Arianna attended Aptos Junior High and then Aptos High School. After graduating high school, she was accepted into Sacramento State University.

Ari was blessed with great intelligence, earning dozens of scholastic achievement awards through middle and high school, including a local scholarship via Omega Nu Santa Cruz. She was always one to put others before herself, and nearly inseparable from her younger sister, Sylvia, as they banded together through a lifetime of annual travel and moving between states and countries.

Most recently as a teenager she lived a life of service to others. This included volunteering at Jacob's Heart preparing grocery deliveries for families with cancer-stricken children, volunteering at Sutter Hospital in reception, and working at the Teen Kitchen Project where she prepared nourishing meals for people with serious illnesses.

Her goals were to attend medical school and become a psychiatrist, while continuing to serve others in her new community at CSU Sacramento, of which she had become a proud member.

To honor Arianna, guests are encouraged to wear something purple, which was her favorite color. All black outfits are discouraged as Ari enjoyed the colors of life, and we wish to honor her with brightness on this day.

Although Mike and Kannika are not asking and would not ask for donations, a fundraiser has been established to support Arianna's two surviving sisters, helping provide for their overall care and ongoing mental health therapy.
