

Finding Your Sanctuary for 2020 - Get Away Ideas

Check with local retreat centers –

Retreat centers are really struggling and are providing opportunities to individuals and small groups that have never been offered before. If you want to get away to experience AwakeningSoul please consider spending your money at a retreat center.

There are retreat centers of all religions/denominations (and unconnected to religious groups) scattered all over the mountains of Western North Carolina and across the country.

Here are a few –
