Ministry of the Laity

Lay Servant training prepares the laity to be in ministry through caring, communication and leadership. The key emphasis of the Lay Servant Training is to equip people to grow as Disciples of Jesus Christ with increasing confidence to teach, do visitation, lead committees, leadership teams, lead small group ministry and grow in personal understanding of God's call on their life.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: October 7th
Registrations received after the 7th will be returned as participants will not have time to receive materials and prepare for the course.

COURSES

Choose One of Four Course Offerings

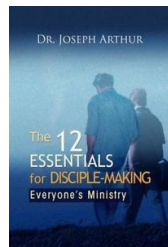

1) The Lay Servant Ministries' Basic Course—taught in English. This course focuses on the many ways lay servants are called to be in ministry through such things as leading, teaching, serving, proclaiming the gospel, disciple-making, storytelling, and growing through personal spiritual formation.

Facilitator: Lynn Campbell, Associate Director of East Central District LSM

2) Ministerios de la oratoria laica - Curso basico

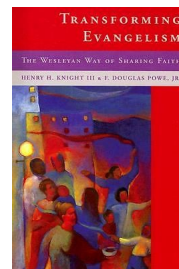

The Lay Servant Ministries' Basic Course—taught in Spanish. This course focuses on the many ways lay servants are called to be in ministry through such things as leading, teaching, serving, proclaiming the gospel, disciple-making, storytelling, and growing through personal spiritual formation.

Facilitator: Rev. Miguel Velez, Senior Pastor of Christ Hispanic, Orlando

3) Creating "Disciple-Making" Systems—This course will use Joseph Arthur's book "12 Essentials for Disciple-Making." Arthur is a former FUMC DeLand Assistant Minister with keen insight into winning souls for Christ.
Facilitator: Rev. Owen Stricklin, Senior Pastor of First UMC, DeLand

4) Transformación de Evangelismo Transforming Evangelism-The Wesleyan Way of Sharing Faith—taught in Spanish. This course will use the book by Henry Knight and F. Douglas Powe, Jr. Their explanation of evangelism is steeped in the Wesleyan tradition, exposing how God's love and grace comes to each of us as we once received it, through the gift of proclamation.
Facilitator: Rev. Ana Andujar-Velez, Retired Clergy
