

ART CAMP COMES TO THE CDC!

July 25 through July 29, 2022

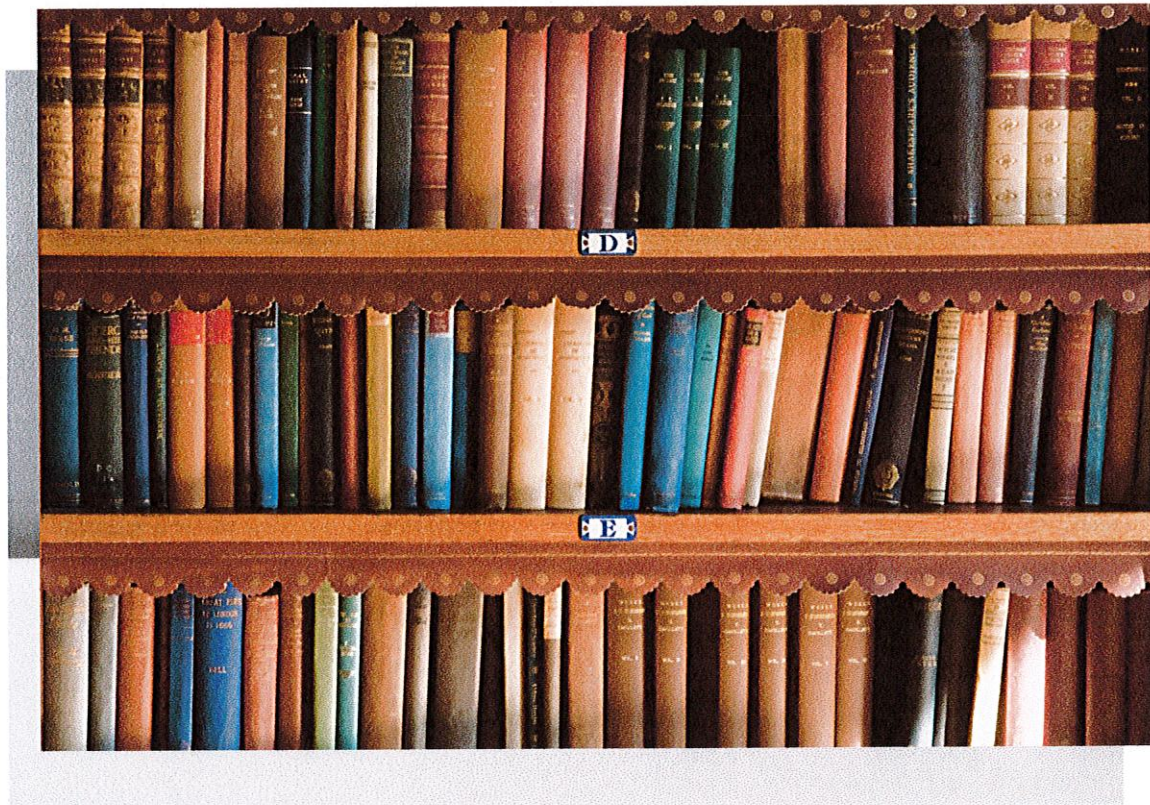

A WEEK OF FUN ART EXPERIENCES

Plans are underway for a week of educational art experiences for our Junior and Senior classes here at Saint Mark's Child Development Center! Classes will be conducted by professionals trained to enrich the hearts and minds of young people through music and art, and to deliver practical coaching in the development of life skills. We want your child to be here for the fun!

The week will include three days of Culinary Arts in hands-on “Kids in the Kitchen” sessions (Monday through Wednesday). Donna Jaynes, previously in charge of an Oconee County public School cafeteria and Becky Hazelwood, previously an owner of “Candlelight Catering” in Atlanta, will conduct this three-day class. The young chefs will learn kitchen safety, how to read a recipe and measure ingredients, and bring home recipes for snacks, breakfast, and entrée items they can make at home (with supervision). They will actually prepare snacks for the first part of the week, concluding with a Taco Bar lunch for everyone on Wednesday.

STORY TIME

Each day will include some sort of “Performance Art”, whether it is a spell-binding story from master Storytelling expert Billy Boggs, Reader’s Theatre with Jane Harlin and Becky Hazelwood, or just some time for your children to practice “Read Alouds” with each other or maybe treat some of our younger kids to a story read by our Senior volunteers.

ART CLASSES

Your budding Picassos will receive instruction in sculpting and watercolor and oil painting from Lisa Kiser, local Seneca artist and art teacher. Each day the students will work on creating “sculptures” from air drying clay, watercolors on paper, or oil painting on canvas.

DRUMS ALIVE!

We are excited that Saint Mark UMC will be the first in our area to offer Drums Alive!, a comprehensive program that combines physical activity, music, rhythm, and teamwork using large balls and drumsticks. This fun activity can be mastered by children as young as four years old and enjoyed by seniors well into their 80's! Laura Ritter, Director of Music Ministry at Saint Mark will conduct sessions in Drums Alive! on Thursday and Friday with assistance from a friend who is a Certified Drums Alive! Instructor.
