

Dear Friends,

Our Saint Mark United Methodist Women are creating a custom cookbook featuring favorite recipes from our members and friends. These cookbooks will be professionally published and are sure to be a treasured keepsake for us all. Money raised will be used to support local missions benefitting women, children, and youth in Oconee County.

Please submit at least 3-5 of your favorite recipes so you can be represented in our cookbook. Many recipes from all members will ensure that our cookbook is a success. If you have friends who are great cooks and would share some of their best recipes, we would love to get them published in our cookbook! We are using Morris Press Cookbook's web site to easily submit recipes online. If you do not have Internet access, or are not comfortable entering your recipes, our committee can enter them for you. Hard copies of your recipes can be placed in the box labeled "UMW recipes" on top of the mail cubbies outside the church office or you can email them to Becky Hazelwood (rhazelwood8455@att.net).

Please enter your recipes online, email them to Becky or drop them in the box by August 1. In order to have the cookbooks available for purchase at our UMW Christmas Faire in November, we have to submit our cookbook to the publisher by mid-August. We will have copies of the cookbook in the Christmas Faire already gift-wrapped for the special people on your gift list!

Thank you!

Include container sizes, e.g., (16-oz.) pkg., (24-oz.) can.

Write directions in paragraph form, not in steps.

Use names of ingredients in the directions, e.g., "Combine flour and sugar."

DO NOT use statements

like, "Combine first three ingredients."

Include temperatures and cooking, chilling, baking, and/or freezing times.

Additional comments about the recipe (history, nutritional data, suggested uses, etc.) can be entered in the "Recipe Note" field. Enter extra recipe content in that field.

Thanks to all who have given sanctuary flowers this year. There are still several dates available (especially in November). If you would like to honor someone or a special occasion with flowers, please sign up on the calendar outside the sanctuary or call Sarah Boylston at 864-882-1328.

Come join the fun on Monday nights!
