

Krista Lord

I am a lifelong Maine Artist working mostly with a combination of watercolor and gouache, though I occasionally dabble in other mediums.

Nature is one of my biggest inspirations. I enjoy spending time in my garden, visiting the coast, or hiking with my partner and our two children. Along the way I gather reference images to use in my art, and soak up inspiration from the world around me.

These works collected here highlight that nature connection and feature botanicals both imagined and real.

To contact me, or to see more of my work, visit my website kristadlord.com, my instagram page @kristadlord, or send me an email at klordart@gmail.com.