Coronavirus and the NACCC

Michael Chittum, Executive Director
James Waechter, Moderator

All of us in leadership of the NACCC, like all of you, are aware of and concerned about the developing news related to Covid-19 and its impact on the health and safety of individuals, especially those at elevated risks, and on potential restrictions on travel and meetings that may come.

At this point, the Oak Creek staff, the Moderator and Vice-Moderator, and the Board of Directors and Leadership Council are continuing to monitor developments and to stay in contact with representatives of the various meeting venues for upcoming gatherings.

Currently, no meetings have been cancelled. As we continue to monitor the situations, we will consider factors such as these in making a decision to cancel:

- A government ban on travel
- Quarantine of the Portland Maine area by the State Department of Public Health
- Closure of our host hotels.

In all of our deliberations, we will keep all parties as informed as we are able.

NEWS & NEEDS

of our Missions

Spring 2020

A quarterly publication of the Mission and Outreach Ministry Council
by Julie Robie, Missions Administrator

Maine Seacoast Mission

Sharon Daley, RN

Maine Seacoast Mission is using telemedicine to meet the need for basic health care for island residents. Director of Island Health Sharon Daley, RN meets with islanders on the Sunbeam and in their homes, and keeps in touch between Sunbeam trips via phone and the internet. The Sunbeam is equipped with state-of-the-art telemedicine facilities, including a specialized examination camera and other diagnostic devices, so that islanders can have virtual office visits with doctors on the mainland. Telemedicine is increasingly important for its role in mental health, allowing adults and children to connect with psychiatrists for evaluations and medication reviews. A growing number of island residents use the equipment to meet with mental health and substance abuse counselors.

Prayers for...

- ♦ The impact of Covid 19 worldwide and on the already stretched medical resources available to NACCC missions and the people for whom they provide services.
- ♦ The NACCC Annual Meeting and Conference, for a spirit of celebrating Jesus Christ and Christian fellowship.
- ♦ Worldwide political unrest which deeply affects many NACCC missions regarding their safety and ability to receive funding.
- ♦ Worldwide weather-related disasters.

Morgan Scott Project

Crystal Tompkins, Executive Director for Morgan Scott Project in Deer Lodge, TN, is grateful for the calls and emails from NACCC churches and individuals checking to see if the mission was hit by recent tornadoes. Thankfully, the mission was not damaged. Crystal immediately reached out to Cookville, TN, one of the hardest hit areas. She will be following the situation in upcoming weeks and let the Mission and Outreach Ministry Council know of any needs.

Praise for...

Two new churches added to the ministry of Word Alive Mission, Ghana.

The "Bell Well", a new well soon to be dug for the Mission School of Hope supported by the Grace Church of Columbiana, OH.
