

Cantina Latina

From Mexico to South America, from Central America to the Caribbean, there is one comfortable and comforting place you can find anywhere in Latin America: la Cantina. Unlike a simple bar in America, la Cantina keeps great snacks, food and a wide variety of drinks on the table at all times.

Take a 5,000 mile trip visiting cantinas throughout Latin America without ever leaving the comfort of your own living room. Sample some of your favorites like Tequila from the Mexican state of Jalisco where rolling hills are blue from agave for as far as you can see. Lay back and relax with a sip of Rum from the Caribbean and feel the warm breeze wash over you. Be adventurous and take a taste of some more exotic libations like Machu Pisco, sort of a unique brandy or cognac.

And no good camarero would allow customers in his cantina to go without great snacks on the table like Tostones which are toasted plantain chips or Hot La Sirena Sardi (sardines) from the coast of Ecuador. You can bet at the end of the evening there will be a shot of strong mountain-grown coffee that perfectly brings our cantina trip to a close.

You can't go wrong bidding on this hand-made artisan basket filled with your cantina delights; and think about joining the Fairfax Democrat Latino Caucus to help get more Latinos involved in our political system.
