

SAVE-THE-DATE

Valley Water Drought Summit 2021

Saturday, October 23, 2021, 9:30 am-12:30 pm

Please join elected officials and community leaders from throughout Silicon Valley to discuss ways to address the drought together!

Experts will share community feedback and insights, water supply projections, and information on water conservation tools and resources that we can use to lead our communities through this crisis.
