Multicultural Media, Telecom and Internet Council 9th Annual Broadband and Social Justice Summit

Tuesday, February 6, 2018
Westin Georgetown Hotel, 2350 M St. NW, Washington, DC 20037

MMTC's 9th Annual Broadband and Social Justice Summit highlights how the intersection of media, telecom, and tech policy impacts us all, from the digital elite to our most vulnerable communities. Thought leaders from government, industry, and advocacy groups address the top issues:

- FCC Chairman Ajit Pai, along with current FCC Commissioners and former FCC Chairs, discuss the latest policy developments in net neutrality, the future of the FCC's Lifeline program, media incubators, FCC's Advisory Committee on Diversity and Digital Empowerment (ACDDE), issues that affect new entrants and small businesses in the upcoming spectrum auction and 5G, and more.
- Town Hall addressing Smart Cities, elections, political advertising on minority-owned media, voter participation, and the impact of the proposed all-digital 2020 Census on communities of color.
- The Future of Work – The impact of automation on jobs, and how to capitalize on careers and business opportunities in broadband, connecting infrastructure, supplier diversity, and registered apprenticeships.
- How financial technology helps to close the wealth gap, and the benefits and costs of incorporating broadband in financially marginalized communities.
- A General Counsel's Forum addressing privacy, big data, artificial intelligence, and algorithm discrimination, and the importance of intellectual property protection in a knowledge economy.
- MMTC confers our 2018 Corporate Social Impact, Pro Bono, FinTech Empowerment, and Champion of Digital Equality Awards

Panelists, including representatives from large ICT industry firms and small and diverse businesses, discuss deployment, investment, infrastructure, expansion goals, and opportunities for diverse suppliers in the new industry environment. In addition, the panelists discuss the impact of federal regulations, such as the new Infrastructure Bill and Tax Bill, as well as state and local regulations, on infrastructure, investment, jobs, vulnerable communities, and the nation's economy. Moderator: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Dr. Ronald Johnson, Commissioner, Fairfax County Economic Development Authority; Director and Treasurer, MMTC Board of Directors - #DrRonaldJohnson @FairfaxEDA @MMTConline Remarks: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- MMTC Media and Telecom Brokerage: Opportunities for Diverse Owners and Donors<ul style="list-style-type: none">o David Honig, President, MMTC Media and Telecom Brokers; President Emeritus and Senior Counsel, MMTC - @DavidHonig2 @MMTConline Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Michael Dennis, President and CEO, Big Green Group - #MichaelDennis #TheBigGreenGroup- Alex Hoehn-Saric, Senior Vice President of Government Relations, Charter Communications; Member, MMTC Board of Advisors - #AlexHoehnSaric @CharterGov- Hank Hultquist, Vice President of Federal Regulatory, AT&T - #HankHultquist @ATT @ATTPublicPolicy- Chi Pak, Senior Manager of Supplier Diversity, T-Mobile - #ChiPak @TMobile
11:00 AM – 12:00 PM Washington Ballroom	Registered Apprenticeship and the Future of Work Description: Apprenticeships have been well-implemented across many U.S. industries, but the ICT sector is just embracing Registered Apprenticeship as a viable solution both to training a new workforce and to bridging the skills gap. This presents numerous opportunities, and challenges, such as implementing diversity and inclusion efforts to ensure diverse communities don't get left behind. Registered Apprenticeship Programs (RAPs) are the key to resolving these problems. During this panel, experts representing key players in the Registered Apprenticeship system will address these issues, ranging from the Department of Labor's Office of Apprenticeship to the Wireless Infrastructure Apprenticeship Access Initiative (a joint Consortium made up of MMTC, the National Urban League, and the Wireless Infrastructure Association) to expand RAPs. Moderator: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Rikin Thakker, Ph.D., Vice President of Spectrum and Telecom Policy, MMTC - @RikinThakker @MMTConline Remarks – "New Pathways to the Jobs and Opportunities of the Future Using Registered Apprenticeship": <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Diane Auer Jones, Senior Policy Adviser, U.S. Department of Labor - #DianeAuerJones @USDOL #ApprenticeshipWorks Panelists:
