

Dear Community Partners,

The Inland Empire Disabilities Collaborative (IEDC) is pleased to announce sponsorship opportunities for the 2019 IEDC Conference, "To Serve Me You Must Know Me." Since the launch of the IEDC in 2006, six professional conferences have been hosted. IEDC conferences promote social change, equal opportunity, universal access and full participation of seniors and people with disabilities; which focus on all aspects of life including health, education, advocacy and employment by offering training opportunities to community partners. With your support, the IEDC will offer a purposeful and engaging conference that will positively impact approximately 450,000 seniors and people with disabilities throughout the Inland Empire. The purpose of the IEDC is to NETWORK to build cooperative relationships, to promote ADVOCACY with and for people with disabilities and to PARTNER to host events that benefit the community at large. The IEDC Conference is funded entirely by sponsors, without partner support the IEDC would not be able to offer professional development opportunities at no cost.

The IEDC Conference will be held on Thursday, March 28, 2019 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at Cal State San Bernardino, College of Extended Learning – Yasuda Center, 5500 University Pkwy, San Bernardino, CA 92407. Session tracks to include:

- Social Change
- Systems Change
- Transformational Leadership
- Sustaining Change

As a sponsor, you will receive marketing/promotion and exhibitor spaces based on your commitment (see Sponsorship Opportunities, page 3). The Conference is for professionals and service providers.

The IEDC looks forward to your participation in the 2019 Conference. Please complete the Sponsorship Commitment Form on page 2 and submit it with your contribution to be included in all marketing materials. Sponsorship payments should be made payable to IEDC, the IEDC is a 501(c)3 organization thus your sponsorship is fully tax-deductible to the amount allowed by law.
