

Social Value International + Efiko:

Our partner, Social Value International, has teamed up with Efiko Academy on an exciting training module! AFF members are eligible for a 10% discount on the price of the course.

Want to learn more about how to maximize your impacts or help those organizations you support to manage their impacts?

A new partnership between Social Value International and the Efiko Academy can help you to do just this with an Accredited Online Training in Measurement and Management of Social Impact.

Whether you work for an impact fund, NGO, social enterprise, corporation, or are a consultant, the Efiko courses on Social Impact Management: Applying the Social Value Principles is tailored just for you and with over 100 exercises and over 20 case studies, theory is put directly into practice.

You will also have access to weekly live sessions with Dr. Adam Richards from SVI, providing extra moments for questions and discussions and you can follow the course when you want, using the device you like.

Find out more and get involved today!

If you are an AFF member, please let us know if you're interested in how to sign up. To become a member at AFF and take advantage of this, and other great member benefits, please apply here.