AFF at AfSAE

On September 25th, AFF CEO, Naila Farouky, represented the network at this year's African Society of Association Executives, where she participated in a panel on: "The Role of African Civil Society Organizations in the Post Covid-19 Recovery"

African Society of Association Executives (AfSAE) is an umbrella body of professionals and volunteers working in Associations across Africa. Last year, the inaugural summit was held in Nairobi and we were planning to hold this year's summit in Kigali, Rwanda. The summit brings together members from the Associations community across Africa as well as other stakeholders from the Association's field.
