

RESET!

Spirit·Mind·Body

When in Doubt, Trust God

By Gary Miller, Board Member, Bob Hoffman Dover Branch YMCA

I was just thinking about my kids, and I found this verse:

"Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint. – Isaiah 40:30-31 KJV

In this day and age, I can't help but think about the coming of the Lord and my kids' future. There is so much in this world that distracts them from their relationship with God. It makes me worry; will they be OK? Will they choose to put God first in their lives? Then I think about the time I was sitting on a plane in a winter storm and missing a connecting flight because of that storm, not knowing if or how I was going to get to my destination...a calming voice said, "Trust me." He said it a second time, because I had some doubts, this time a little louder. I did, and He delivered as He always does! Bringing that to recollection reassures me that God is in control, that He is watching over me and my family, and that I should wait upon Him for the answers to all of my troubles and worries.

Times when you feel weak and alone and not sure of what is going on, He renews your strength!