

Community Collaboration for Children
Child Abuse Prevention Conference

WORKSHOP CATALOG

March 3, 2026

COMMUNITY
COLLABORATION
FOR CHILDREN

Welcome to our Conference Catalog

This catalog offers an opportunity to review the conference workshops prior to registration going live. It will give participants time to make an informed decision on their selections with more detailed workshop descriptions along with information about the workshop presenter(s).

Registration is tentatively set to go open late January/early February 2026. Please review the information and be ready when registration goes live.

Things to know about the Conference

- When registering, ensure that you receive an email confirmation that shows the workshops you selected. If you do not receive a confirmation email, then we have not received your registration. The email may have been incorrectly entered during the registration process.
- Choose only 1 morning and 1 afternoon workshop selection. Registrations with multiple workshops selections in one time period will be rejected (even if you receive an email confirmation). You will be required to register again correctly. Not ensuring you have selected correctly could result in sessions being full.
- When arriving on conference day, please sign in at the morning registration table at the Cranmer Dining Center to receive your conference bag and materials for the day. Location of the workshop rooms will be in your conference folder.
- There is plenty of parking, but limited spaces close to the buildings. Please be prepared to walk to different buildings and be mindful of any inclement weather on that day. (Raincoat, umbrella, etc.)
- All attendees MUST sign in for every workshop session in addition to the conference registration table.
- Sign in sheets for the keynote speaker will be available during the lunch hour in the same location as the morning registration table. You must sign again to receive a certificate for the keynote hour.
- Breakfast snacks and water will be made available in the morning sessions.
- Room temperatures may not always be suitable to everyone or within our control. We recommend that you dress in layers to ensure you are most comfortable during the conference.
- Lunch is provided at NO Charge in the Dining Center to conference attendees. Meal tickets will be provided the day of the conference.
- Certificates will be sent out within 2 months after the event to the email address that you registered with. Make sure to check your spam/junk mail.
- Participants are required to attend the entire workshop to receive credit. Early departure will result in forfeit of workshop certificate.

Sponsors

Thank you to our conference sponsors!

There are still opportunities to be a sponsor for this event!

If you, or your organization is interested in supporting this event, please reach out to us at 270-343-4600 today on becoming a conference sponsor.

Conference Agenda

8:30—Registration Begins (Cranmer Dining Center Foyer)

Note: Breakfast snacks & water will be provided in the workshop rooms

9:00—11:00 Morning Workshops

(Choose only ONE!)

- ⇒ “Are they Good for Your Kids?” A Community Approach to Preventing Sexual Abuse
Presenter: Janna Estep-Jordan, PCAK
- ⇒ Emotional Climate of Trust: How Emotional Intelligence Shapes Leadership, Coaching & Counseling Communication.
Presenter: Matt Dentino, Braintrust
- ⇒ Fundamentals of Fatherhood
Presenter: Tare Wilson & Aaron Ames, Commonwealth Center for Fathers & Families
- ⇒ Protecting Children in a Digital World: Internet Safety, Vaping & Adult Awareness
Presenter: Carl Varney, Operation UNITE
- ⇒ Be a HERO (Hope, Empathy, Resilience, Opportunity): Tricks of the Trade
Presenter: Vickie Reed, Author
- ⇒ New Tools for Harm Prevention: kynect Resources Overview
Presenter: Savannah Sublette-Federico, kynect Resources

11:15—12:30 LUNCH (Cranmer Dining Center)

Provided at no charge. One ticket issued per person.

Announcements & Giveaways!

12:45—1:45 Keynote Presentation “Brenda Ferrari, Live!” (aka Etta May)

Note: You must sign an additional sheet in the dining room foyer to receive CEU credit hours for the keynote presentation.*

Conference Agenda cont.

2:00—4:00 Afternoon Workshops

(Choose only ONE!)

- ⇒ The Situation Table, An Intro... “Enhance Community Safety & Well Being”
Presenter: Daniel Meloy, Patricia Hamilton & Shelley Hearn, Law Enforcement)
- ⇒ Emotional Climate of Trust: How Emotional Intelligence Shapes Leadership, Coaching & Counseling Communication.
Presenter: Matt Dentino, Braintrust
- ⇒ Minimizing Trauma through Minimal Facts: What to do when a child discloses Child Sexual Abuse
Presenter: Debbie Vonnahme, Trainer
- ⇒ Protecting Children in a Digital World: Internet Safety, Vaping & Adult Awareness
Presenter: Carl Varney, Operation UNITE
- ⇒ Q&A/Deeper Dive ! The woman behind the laughter (aka Etta May)
Presenter: Brenda Ferrari
- ⇒ Don’t Let Your Bucket Run Dry: Self Care & Resilience for Health Care Professionals
Presenter: Dr. Lynda Wilkerson, Support Agency

Take a moment to snap a picture at one of our backdrops!

Morning Workshops

9:00—11:00 am CST

Please make sure that you stop at the registration desk before going to your workshop. You will need to sign in, receive your folder and conference bag.

Note: You MUST sign in at each workshop and attend the entire session to receive a certificate. Early departure will forfeit your certificate.

Please choose only ONE workshop from each time block. There are 6 available options to select from each time block.

Option 1:

“Are they Good for Your Kids?” A Community Approach to Preventing Sexual Abuse

Presenter: Janna Estep-Jordan, PCAK

Child sexual abuse is preventable—when adults are informed, empowered, and proactive. This workshop centers on Prevent Child Abuse Kentucky’s Are They Good for Your Kids? campaign, offering practical tools, resources, and knowledge to help adults protect children in their lives and communities. Participants will learn how to recognize grooming behaviors, understand healthy sexual development in children, and take concrete steps to create safer environments. Whether you’re a parent, caregiver, educator, or community member, this session will equip you with the insight and strategies to make a lasting difference in a child’s life.

About the Presenter:

Janna Estep Jordan, MSW/Janna Estep Jordan has been working and volunteering in the field of child welfare for over years. In 2006, she began work at Prevent Child Abuse Kentucky. Through her work, Janna has provided over 400 presentations and trainings across the Commonwealth educating others on promising practices used to strengthen Kentucky’s families and children. She serves as the Assistant Director, overseeing programs aimed at educating ALL Kentuckians on preventing the abuse and neglect of Kentucky’s children. Janna holds a Bachelors of Social Work from Eastern Kentucky University, and Masters of Social Work from the University of Kentucky. She is a wife, mother of two, wanna be golfer and enjoys spending time with her Labrador, Floyd.

Morning Workshops

9:00—11:00 am CST

Option 2:

Emotional Climate of Trust: How Emotional Intelligence Shapes Leadership, Coaching & Counseling Communication

Presenter: Matt Dentino, Braintrust

This workshop is designed to strengthen the emotional intelligence and communication skills of professionals working in leadership, counseling, education, and community-based service roles. Participants explore how the emotional climate they create in everyday interactions directly affects trust, psychological safety, engagement, and outcomes for children and families.

The session emphasizes ethical, relationship-centered practice and provides practical tools to support emotionally informed decision-making, collaboration, and care.

Trust is foundational to effective service delivery. This workshop equips professionals with practical emotional intelligence tools to intentionally create supportive, respectful, and trust-centered environments for children, families, and communities. shape that climate in ways that foster clarity, connection, and growth.

About the Presenter:

Matt Dentino. Certified Coach and Facilitator
Director of Velocity Coaching | Braintrust
Executive Producer | Driving Change Podcast

Matt Dentino is a leadership coach, facilitator, and Executive Producer of the Driving Change podcast with Braintrust Growth. With decades of experience in sales, leadership development, and performance coaching, Matt specializes in helping leaders build trust, emotional intelligence, and connection through clear, human-centered communication.

Matt's passion for this work is deeply personal. He grew up as the seventh of ten children in a large Italian family, where his father modeled what Matt now calls "persistent consistency." Through a family performance tradition known as The Dancing Dentino Family Act, Matt learned lessons that shaped his life and leadership philosophy: family is the most important relationship we have, service to others is our highest calling, and dedication and hard work define our legacy.

Matt brings those principles into his work with executives, teams, coaches, and counselors, helping them create emotional climates where people feel seen, safe, and motivated to grow. His work blends neuroscience, emotional intelligence, and real-world leadership experience to turn values into lived behaviors that build trust.

Morning Workshops

9:00—11:00 am CST

Option 3:

Fundamentals of Fatherhood

Presenters: Tare' Wilson & Aaron Ames, Commonwealth Center for Fathers & Families

This session will provide research-informed insights demonstrating that responsible, engaged fatherhood is a critical component in strengthening child and family well-being and improving long-term outcomes. Participants will explore how effective father engagement can help address some of Kentucky's most pressing challenges—including child maltreatment, substance use disorders, human trafficking, and more. The session will also emphasize the growing shift toward father-inclusive practices and highlight current statewide efforts aimed at increasing the protective factors associated with positive father involvement.

About the Presenters:

Tare Wilson

Tare Wilson serves as the Training & Resource Coordinator for the Commonwealth Center for Fathers & Families (CCFF), where he is dedicated to strengthening fatherhood engagement across Kentucky. With a passion for empowering fathers, Tare brings experience in community partnership building, family support, and training facilitation. His work focuses on equipping organizations, faith communities, and service providers with practical tools to better serve fathers and promote healthy family outcomes. Tare is also an active advocate for fatherhood initiatives and has spoken at multiple events on the importance of father engagement and support.

Aaron Ames

Aaron Ames is the Director of Operations for the Commonwealth Center for Fathers & Families (CCFF). With more than 15 years of experience in nonprofit leadership, community development, and program administration, Aaron plays a key role in guiding CCFF's statewide work to strengthen fathers and families. He oversees organizational operations, strategic initiatives, and partnership development, ensuring that programs are effective, accessible, and father-centered. Aaron is known for his commitment to equity, innovation, and building systems that support positive outcomes for children through strong, engaged fathers.

Together, Tare and Aaron bring complementary experience and shared passion to the "Fundamentals of Fatherhood" presentation, offering practical insights, real-world strategies, and a vision for what empowered fatherhood can look like in communities across Kentucky.

Morning Workshops

9:00—11:00 am CST

Option 4:

Protecting Children in a Digital World: Internet Safety, Vaping & Adult Awareness

Presenter: Carl Varney, Operation UNITE

This workshop, presented through Operation UNITE, focuses on protecting children and adolescents by increasing adult awareness of current digital safety risks, substance use trends, and prevention strategies. Participants will gain an understanding of internet safety concerns such as social media risks, online grooming, and digital exploitation, as well as current vaping and nicotine trends impacting youth. The presentation highlights the critical role adults play in prevention, early identification of risk behaviors, and safeguarding children from abuse and exploitation.

About the Presenter:

Carl is a Prevention Educator with Operation UNITE, a Kentucky-based nonprofit dedicated to reducing substance misuse and supporting youth and families through prevention, education, treatment, and recovery initiatives. Through Operation UNITE, Carl delivers evidence-based prevention programming across schools, community organizations, and professional settings, focusing on internet safety, youth vaping and nicotine prevention, and adult education related to child abuse prevention and risk reduction. His work emphasizes practical strategies adults can use to create safer environments for children both online and offline.

Option 5:

Be a HERO (Hope, Empathy, Resilience, Opportunity): Tricks of the Trade

Presenter: Vickie Reed, Author

This workshop focuses on how to use simple strategies in day-to-day interactions with youth, families, and professional staff to improve outcomes. Emphasis will also be placed on breaking the “foster care to prison” pipeline.

About the Presenter:

Ms. Reed has spent decades in the child welfare and juvenile justice fields. She was the director of the training branch for the Cabinet for Families and Children and former commissioner of the Ky Department of Juvenile Justice. She began the first foster care review board in Lexington, Ky and was the director of a private agency operating emergency shelter for children and youth. She also ran the Bluegrass office of a foster care agency.

Morning Workshops

9:00—11:00 am CST

Option 6:

New Tools for Harm Prevention: kynect Resources Overview

Presenters: Savannah Sublette-Federico, kynect Resources

In the presentation, the basic overview of kynect resources will be provided, which includes how to use the directory, integration of the program across state systems, and the tools available for referral management. Specific data will be shared on how different agencies like DCBS uses the platform to prevent child abuse and get residents connected with local resources before future harm. The Cabinet for Health and Family Services (CHFS)'s dynamic new program sets Kentucky ahead of the curve for investments in technology and collaboration.

About the Presenter:

Savannah Sublette-Federico – Executive Advisor of kynect resources
Mrs. Federico is an experienced Executive Advisor specializing in state-wide program development and execution, centered on resource provision and connections for citizens and data gathering and analytics driving policy and research. Her background in criminology was transformative in showing the power of resources in people's lives and the lives of their family and community.

Lunch

11:15—12:30 pm CST

Lunch will be provided in the Cranmer Dining Center for all registered attendees at no charge.

Meal tickets distributed at the conference and must be presented prior to entering the dining center.

Meal is buffet with a variety of options to accommodate most dietary needs.

Give-A-Ways will be drawn during the lunch hour. You don't want to miss this!
Must be present to win.

Keynote Presentation

12:45—1:45 pm CST

Brenda Ferrari, Live! (aka Etta May)

BRENDA FERRARI (aka: ETTA MAY) has been a professional, award-winning standup comic and actress for over thirty-four years. Her credits include appearances on Oprah, Showtime, and several sitcoms and pilots.

Her comedy is characterized by its clean and relatable nature, making it accessible to a wide audience. She often shares humorous stories about everyday life, family dynamics, and the challenges of motherhood. Her ability to connect audiences from diverse backgrounds has contributed to her enduring popularity.

Brenda will reveal the woman behind Etta May through her personal journey from various dead-end jobs to becoming a successful comedian, using humor to navigate the ups and downs of raising children and managing relationships.

About the Presenter:

Breanda Lee Ferrari

Ms. Ferrari was never supposed to survive childbirth, was abused as a child and yet became a successful comedian, “Etta May”. She will demonstrate in her keynote performance how one can rise above their obstacles in life, be successful and an encouragement to others. She will share real life experiences that will resonate with the challenges attendees face in their daily work with along with how she gained victory and a successful career through those lived experiences. Etta May will inspire, encourage and bring hope to those who hear her story.

Afternoon Workshops

2:00—4:00 pm CST

Option 1:

The Situation Table, An Intro... “Enhance Community Safety & Well Being”

Presenters: Daniel Meloy, Patricia Hamilton & Shelley Hearn, Law Enforcement

Learn how the Situation Table model brings multiple community partners together to rapidly identify and support individuals and families at Acutely Elevated Risk (AER). This session introduces the 4-Filter process, real data from Kentucky sites, and practical examples of how coordinated outreach and early intervention strengthen community safety, reduce crisis events, and connect people to needed services.

About the Presenters:

Tricia Hamilton serves as a Police Social Worker with the Frankfort Police Department in Frankfort, Kentucky. In her role, she partners closely with officers, behavioral-health providers, and community organizations to support individuals and families experiencing substance-use and mental-health crises. Tricia also plays a key role in Frankfort's Wings of Hope Quick Response Team (QRT) initiative, helping connect residents to recovery services, treatment resources, and longer-term support. She is committed to trauma-informed, person-centered approaches that strengthen community safety and well-being through collaborative deflection efforts.

Shelley Hearn is a Police Social Worker with the Frankfort Police Department in Frankfort, Kentucky, where she provides support and resources to individuals and families experiencing behavioral-health, substance-use, and crisis-related challenges. Working alongside law enforcement, treatment partners, and community agencies, Shelley helps ensure residents receive compassionate assistance, crisis follow-up, and access to recovery-focused services. She also contributes to the Wings of Hope Quick Response Team (QRT) efforts, supporting outreach and connection to care for individuals affected by substance use and overdose. Shelley is a strong advocate for trauma-informed engagement and collaborative approaches that promote safety, stability, and hope in the community.

Daniel Meloy serves as President of the Ohio Deflection Association and Executive Director of Community Engagement at Cordata Healthcare Innovations, where he supports communities building deflection, QRT, and collaborative crisis-response strategies. A retired Police Chief and former Director of Public Safety in Colerain Township (OH), Dan has more than 30 years of experience in public safety and community partnership development. He has helped guide the launch and growth of Quick Response Teams and Situation Tables across multiple states, including Kentucky's KORE-supported deflection initiatives. Dan is committed to building public-safety-led, recovery-focused systems that support individuals, families, and communities through coordinated outreach, peer support, and person-centered crisis intervention.

Afternoon Workshops

2:00—4:00 pm CST

Option 2: (Repeat Session from the morning)

Emotional Climate of Trust: How Emotional Intelligence Shapes Leadership, Coaching & Counseling Communication

Presenter: Matt Dentino, Braintrust

This workshop is designed to strengthen the emotional intelligence and communication skills of professionals working in leadership, counseling, education, and community-based service roles. Participants explore how the emotional climate they create in everyday interactions directly affects trust, psychological safety, engagement, and outcomes for children and families.

The session emphasizes ethical, relationship-centered practice and provides practical tools to support emotionally informed decision-making, collaboration, and care.

Trust is foundational to effective service delivery. This workshop equips professionals with practical emotional intelligence tools to intentionally create supportive, respectful, and trust-centered environments for children, families, and communities. shape that climate in ways that foster clarity, connection, and growth.

About the Presenter:

Matt Dentino. Certified Coach and Facilitator
Director of Velocity Coaching | Braintrust
Executive Producer | Driving Change Podcast

Matt Dentino is a leadership coach, facilitator, and Executive Producer of the Driving Change podcast with Braintrust Growth. With decades of experience in sales, leadership development, and performance coaching, Matt specializes in helping leaders build trust, emotional intelligence, and connection through clear, human-centered communication.

Matt's passion for this work is deeply personal. He grew up as the seventh of ten children in a large Italian family, where his father modeled what Matt now calls "persistent consistency." Through a family performance tradition known as The Dancing Dentino Family Act, Matt learned lessons that shaped his life and leadership philosophy: family is the most important relationship we have, service to others is our highest calling, and dedication and hard work define our legacy.

Matt brings those principles into his work with executives, teams, coaches, and counselors, helping them create emotional climates where people feel seen, safe, and motivated to grow. His work blends neuroscience, emotional intelligence, and real-world leadership experience to turn values into lived behaviors that build trust.

Afternoon Workshops

2:00—4:00 pm CST

Option 3:

Minimizing Trauma through Minimal Facts: What to do when a child discloses Child Sexual Abuse

Presenters: Debbie Vonnahme, Trainer

The child who has suffered from sexual abuse has to tell their story 4-11 times before arriving at a Child Advocacy Center (CAC). Our goal for this training is for all mandatory reporters to know what four questions to ask and the dos and don'ts for interviewing a child who is disclosing child sexual abuse. At the CAC, their story can be taped and told to a trained, certified Forensic Interviewer, while others needing the information watch from an observation room. The Multi-Disciplinary approach of child advocates, medical staff, law enforcement, DCBS and therapy, all work together to reduce the trauma for the child and family. However, what happens at the very beginning of a disclosure greatly affects the outcome at the CAC.

About the Presenter:

Debbie Vonnahme has worked in Social Work in Kentucky, Iowa and Ohio. She has served as a foster parent recruitment and certification worker, Alcohol and Drug Prevention Specialist, Family Preservation specialist and DCBS worker and trainer. She now works as the Education Coordinator for the Barren River Child Advocacy Center in Bowling Green, KY.

Option 4: (Repeat Session from the morning)

Protecting Children in a Digital World: Internet Safety, Vaping & Adult Awareness

Presenter: Carl Varney, Operation UNITE

This workshop, presented through Operation UNITE, focuses on protecting children and adolescents by increasing adult awareness of current digital safety risks, substance use trends, and prevention strategies. Participants will gain an understanding of internet safety concerns such as social media risks, online grooming, and digital exploitation, as well as current vaping and nicotine trends impacting youth. The presentation highlights the critical role adults play in prevention, early identification of risk behaviors, and safeguarding children from abuse and exploitation.

About the Presenter:

Carl is a Prevention Educator with Operation UNITE, a Kentucky-based nonprofit dedicated to reducing substance misuse and supporting youth and families through prevention, education, treatment, and recovery initiatives. Through Operation UNITE, Carl delivers evidence-based prevention programming across schools, community organizations, and professional settings, focusing on internet safety, youth vaping and nicotine prevention, and adult education related to child abuse prevention and risk reduction. His work emphasizes practical strategies adults can use to create safer environments for children both online and offline.

Afternoon Workshops

2:00—4:00 pm CST

Option 5:

Q&A/Deeper Dive: The Woman Behind the Laughter

Presenter: Brenda Ferrari, Comedian, Actress, Author

This workshop will focus on the lived experiences of Breanda Ferrari. She will share her story of her extraordinary disadvantages and the uncommon life hacks that helped get her through. She will discuss how she endured decades of darkness and neglect to become a virtuoso of laughter.

Brenda will share 3 revelations that keep her going and techniques that can be used to understand, take stock of, and improve ones life and career. She will take a deeper dive into her book "Play Hurt" and what that meant in her life with lived experiences and how those techniques can be used when working with others who have been through childhood trauma. This workshop will be an open discussion and Q&A for attendees to participate in. Attendees will be encouraged by the strength and perseverance to overcome adversity through the personal testimony of Brenda Lee (aka Etta May).

About the Presenter:

Ms. Ferrari has been a professional, award winning standup comic and actress for over 34 years. Better known as Etta May, her credits include appearances on Oprah, Showtime and several sitcoms & pilots. As a speaker, Brenda reveals the woman behind the laughter.

Ms. Ferrari was never supposed to survive childbirth, was abused as a child and yet became a successful comedian, "Etta May". She will discuss how one can rise above their obstacles in life and be successful and an encouragement to others. She will share real life experiences that will resonate with the challenges attendees face in their daily work with along with how she gained victory and successful career through those lived experiences. Etta May inspires, encourage and bring hope to those who hear her story and witness her performance.

Afternoon Workshops

2:00—4:00 pm CST

Option 6:

Don't Let Your Bucket Run Dry: Self Care & Resilience for Health Care Professionals

Presenters: Dr. Lynda Wilkerson, The Support Agency

This interactive workshop will focus upon on how to prevent stress as well as burnout, and sustain wellbeing as behavioral health professionals navigate the current landscape in their practice. Through engaging activities, those who attend will develop a personalized self care and resilience plan and identify boundary setting practices. Participants will leave with concrete sustainable tools to support their well being and enhance their capacity to practice at the highest level.

About the Presenter:

Lynda Wilkerson Ph.D, LCSW, LCADC Dr. Wilkerson is a behavioral health professional who has over 48 years experience in working with individuals and families. She has presented on self care at the local, state, and national level. Her specific areas of expertise are aging, substance use disorder issues, and holistic health. She resides in Columbia, Ky with her husband Ken and a spoiled rotten Australian Sheperd named Peege.

CEU INFORMATION

CEU's are pending approval through the following providers:

Kentucky Board of License Professional Counselors

National Association of Social Work—Kentucky Chapter (Approved)

Kentucky Department for Community Based Services Training Hours (Approved)

Kentucky Division of Family Resource and Youth Services Centers

Kentucky Division of Child Care KYTRIS

*Foster Care Training Hours—Approved ONLY for the following workshops:

- 1) Are They Good for your kids
- 2) Protecting Children in a Digital World
- 3) Be a HERO: Tricks of the Trade
- 4) Minimizing Trauma Through Minimal Facts.

Community Collaboration for Children

Community Collaboration for Children (CCC) is a federally funded program designed to prevent child abuse and neglect, to support and strengthen families, and to encourage communities to work together knowing that they are the family's best resources. CCC has empowered families for over 20+ years and is available in all 120 counties of the state of Kentucky.

CCC focuses on the prevention of child abuse and neglect by offering monthly Regional Network Meetings in local communities and In-Home Services to families. Our staff empowers families and encourages communities to work together for the well-being of families and children.

This conference is made possible through the leadership of the Lake Cumberland CCC Program along with dedicated community partners and sponsors. The Lake Cumberland CCC programs serves: Adair, Casey, Clinton, Cumberland, Green, McCreary, Pulaski, Russell, Taylor and Wayne Counties.

Contact us today to make Community Collaboration for Children (CCC) a part of your agency's referral source.

Let's work together to prevent child abuse and neglect while strengthening, supporting and empowering Kentucky families!

Community Collaboration for Children

Community Collaboration for Children (CCC) is a FREE service designed to prevent child abuse and neglect, to support and strengthen families, and to encourage communities to work together knowing that they are the family's best resources.

CCC in-home services empower the family unit by teaching problem solving skills, discussing appropriate discipline techniques, assisting parents in becoming self-sufficient and coordinating available community resources.

FAMILY/POPULATION TYPES: New & Expectant Parents, 2 Parent Households, Single Parents, Blended Families, Young Adults, Grandparents Raising Grandchildren, Homeless, Parent/Child with Disabilities, Teenage Parents, Truancy/School issues, Grief, Crisis, or just increased education and help in raising children.

For More Information:

Contact: Carrie Bunch
Phone: 270-343-4600
Toll Free: 800-928-6382
Email: carrie.bunch@lc-caa.org

- ⇒ No income guidelines to qualify.
- ⇒ Child in the home: prenatal to 18 years old.
- ⇒ No DCBS Substantiated findings
- ⇒ Visits in the comfort of your own home.
- ⇒ Services tailored to your families needs.
- ⇒ Valuable education and resources.
- ⇒ Concrete Support items available.
- ⇒ And much more!!

This program is funded under a contract with the Cabinet for Health & Family Services with funds from Title IV-B, Sub-part 2 of the Federal Social Security Act, Promoting Safe & Stable Families (PSSF) and the Federal Community Based Child Abuse Prevention (CBCAP).

Thank you!

We are so excited for you to join us for the 16th annual conference on March 3, 2026.

Lake Cumberland Community Action Agency, Inc.
Community Collaboration for Children

23 Industry Dr.
PO Box 830
Jamestown, KY 42629

Phone: 270-343-4600
Fax: 270-343-2800
Email: carrie.bunch@lc-caa.com
Web: www.lc-caa.org