

PDF's 2020 Community Organizing Grantees

Peace Development Fund makes grants for community-based organizations working for peace and social justice

What is PDF?

The Peace Development Fund is a public foundation that works to build the capacity of community-based organizations through grants, training, and other resources as partners in human rights and social justice movements.

We work to counter-balance dominant power structures by moving resources and sharing decision-making with activist groups and communities.

Community Organizing Grants

The Peace Development Fund makes grants to community-based organizations working for peace and social justice.

Throughout its history, PDF has always looked at peace as not just the absence of war or militarism, but as the presence of equitable relationships among people, nations and the environment. This understanding of peace has allowed PDF to bring a social, environmental and economic justice perspective to its work.

Pioneer Valley Community Advised Fund

Donors to the Pioneer Valley Community Advised Fund help raise money and recommend grants for grassroots organizations in Massachusetts' Hampden, Hampshire and Franklin counties.

Our Pillars of Grantmaking

Organizing to Shift Power

Groups whose leadership comes directly from the people who are most affected by the issues they are organizing around.

Working to Build a Movement

Groups that organize in the local community, but make connections between local issues and a broader need or systemic change.

Dismantling Oppression

Groups and projects that are proactively engaged in a process of dismantling oppression, confronting privilege and challenging institutional structures that perpetuate oppression.

Creating New Structures

Efforts to create new, community-based alternative systems and structures that are liberating, democratic and environmentally sustainable, and which promote healthy, sustainable communities.
