Preamble:

"We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, ensure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty..." These words are untrue for many Americans. There is nothing from this country that says to its citizens or the world that this country, the United States of America is honoring its own Constitution in keeping its promise.

These words are also untrue for many Americans. We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness." It is no secret that race relations in the United States is, at any given time, poor. It can easily be said regarding racial relations in this country, the term "United States" can be deemed an oxymoron. Specifically, as it relates to African Americans, racial tension in this country remains high. Due to slavery and all subsequent events which followed America has yet to keep her word. However, it is not only the past that is the issue, it is present day activities and a thwarted hope for a better future. That is because "our" present and our past are bound to an unreconciled history.

While much has been done to move our nation forward, little has been done in the way outward declaration of equality. There is no symbol of inclusion, no visible statement of equality, and no sign to point to as a reminder of efforts going forward, and there is no sign stating that our government acknowledges its part in our history of shame.

As a concerned citizen and community activist, I am writing with hope to gain your support in developing a bill for social/racial reconciliation.

The "bill," to be known as "Banner of Reconciliation," will signify the outward manifestation of Federal, State, and local governments willingness to recognize the history, contemporary lives, and future hopes of persons of African descent, and signify the beginning of the United States' effort to remember and rectify its misconduct towards, and blatant disregard for human life as it has affected people of African Descent.

Proposal:

I/we propose enactment of legislation that will make into law, an act to symbolize reconciliation, inclusion, acceptance, and admission. Flying the African American/ Pan African Flag.

Item One:

Part one,

Flying the African American Flag daily from January 1st of each year and until March 1st of each year, beginning January 1st, 2021.

1. To be flown at all Federal, State, and local government buildings, financial institutions, and all business and organizations who are, in any way, supported by any Federal, State, and local government funding.
2. At all times, to be flown at all schools (public and private.)
3. To be flown year-round at all post offices (symbolic to sending a message).

Part Two,

1. To be flown in remembrance of the issuance of the Emancipation Proclamation signed January 1, 1863.
2. In celebration of Abraham Lincoln's birthday, February 12, 1809
3. In celebration of Fredrick Douglass, who celebrated his birthday on February 14th.
4. To be flown in recognition of Martin Luther King Day, the third Monday of each January.
5. To be flown in respect to the death of President Lyndon Baines Johnson, who signed the "Voting Rights Act" of 1965, whose death occurred January 22, 1973.
6. In celebration and support of Black History Month, February of each year.

Item Two:

Part One,

1. The order of use and display:

The United States Flag

The Pan-African Flag

States Flag

2. Wherever the United States Flag is flown, so should the Pan-African flag also fly.
3. The Pan-African flag shall be flown, red color at top position. (fines to be imposed)
4. All other flags to fly subsequent to, and in respect of this order (fines to be imposed)
5. At no time shall the Confederate flag be flown on the same staff/flagpole, or within 400 feet of the Pan-African flag.
6. When raising or presenting the Pan-African flag, the African American National Anthem shall accompany (Lift every Voice and Sing)
7. As a national emblem, the Pan-African Flag shall receive the same honors, rights, and privileges as the United States flag.

Enactment:

The intent of this proposal is to make into law a bill that provides the equal display and protection, as described in the document, the use and flying of the Pan- African Flag as a symbol of admission, acceptance, inclusion and hope for reconciliation as it relates to race relations and the people of this country. And that this bill shall pass and be in effect January 1, 2021.

Notes:

Outside of the recognition of African American people, the basis and foundation supporting this bill will be the memory and honor of historical events and those who lived the events.

1. President Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation January 1, 1863.
2. Martin Luther King Day is the third Monday of every January.
3. Lyndon Baines Johnson, born August 27, 1908, Died: January 22, 1973
4. Abraham Lincoln was born on February 12, 1809
5. Although Fredrick Douglass was born into slavery and his actual birth date is unknown, it is believed he chose to commemorate his birthday on February 14.
6. President Johnson signed the Voting Rights Act into law on August 6, 1965, with Martin Luther King Jr. and other civil rights leaders present at the ceremony.
7. On August 13, 1920, the RED, BLACK and GREEN Flag was unveiled to the world by the Honorable Marcus Mosiah Garvey and the members of the Universal Negro Improvement Association and African Communities League, of the World at its first international convention on August 13, 1920.
8. The meaning of the Pan-African flag colors:
Red: the blood that unites all people of Black African ancestry and shed for liberation.
Black: black people whose existence as a nation, though not a nation-state, is affirmed by the existence of the flag.
Green: the abundant natural wealth of Africa.
