Dear Friends,

We write today to ask that you make a donation to support us as we continue and expand this work! We need your financial help so we can provide the full three-week 2019 summer camp in Chester and continue to expand the outreach of BD101.

We, at 4 Circles Beyond are committed to BEING the CHANGE that we and our fellow humans are desperately yearning for! Whether facilitating BD101 Intensives, supporting youth empowerment through Peace, Liberation/Leadership & the Arts (PL&A) or working to build the Academy for Peace & Liberation Education – we are about radical truth-telling, radical love and inside/outside transformation.

We are excited to be centering our programs, beginning May, 2019 at the beautiful MJ FREED THEATER in downtown Chester!

CAMP FEATURES

- Heart-Centered Community-building Skills
- Making a Difference through Youth Organizing
- Arts Interrupting Injustice (using Graphic, Song, Dance)

Last summer we conducted A Listening Project

- to gauge community support and guidance for creating the Academy (High School) in Chester. Working under the guidance of 4CB staff, 2018 PL&A summer interns (pictured below) interviewed community members gathering invaluable perspectives on what it would mean to offer a high school education based in liberation.

Your gift will also support scholarships for Beyond Diversity 101 Intensive Workshops

BD101 offers the “opportunity to gain information that helps to unravel the intricacies of race, gender, identity and a range of biases embedded in US Society (and) get beyond ‘cultural competency’ to get down to really understanding roots of difference.” - 2018 Participant

Bringing Our Interconnection
Into Full Expression

Help us to heal so we can be a strong foundation where our children can heal, so they can be a strong foundation where our grandchildren stand upon a strong foundation, in a peaceful world...

(from 'Healing' – as performed by Tribe 1, written by Niyonu)

KEY OBJECTIVES

To promote peace and well-being by de-structuring systems of domination and assuring social, economic, racial and environmental justice.

To train emerging and established leaders to build strong, heart-centered, and community-responsive programs.

To provide youth and adult changemakers with tools and practices for the well-being of body, mind, and spirit.

To provide a method of high school education grounded in liberation and wholeness; Liberation Education that increases students' capacity and access to contribute to their community and the larger society.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Radical Truth-telling: We expose and dispel myths of white supremacy and of the inferiority of people of color and the poor.

Heart-centered Action: "Power at its best is love implementing the demands of justice, and Justice at its best is power correcting everything that stands against love." MLK

Center those most impacted by injustice those dis-acknowledged and targeted by lies of inferiority, those systematically excluded from opportunities to create toward their own well-being.

Artistic Expression: Tapping in, creating, and offering art helps us to re-member who we are – divine co-creators.

Liberation: Renewing the vitality of life- mentally, physically, and spiritually.

VISION

Our community acts from knowing and honoring the individual and collective ability to imagine, design, build, and sustain loving and healthy families and communities. We, community people, must determine the supporting economic, governing, healing, and spiritual systems that assure wholistic circulation throughout. All of this, with our focus always, 4 Circles Beyond...
