

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER YOU VOTE?

★ a behind the scenes look at our elections ★

You've registered to vote. You've gone to the polls. But what happens next? Join Connecticut College Professor and Registrar of Voters, Mara Suttman-Lea Ph.D., for a behind-the-scenes look at how elections actually work.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 27 6:30 PM
AVON FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY

AT THIS IN-PERSON TALK, YOU WILL LEARN:

Who runs elections in Connecticut.

What keeps your ballot secure.

Why local elections officials are the experts at the heart of it all.

How elections are administered across jurisdictions.

What happens behind the scenes in registration, casting, canvassing and certification processes.

Mara Suttman-Lea Ph.D. is an associate professor of American politics at Connecticut College specializing in elections. Their work is driven by an interest in strengthening access to and confidence in American Democracy, and ensuring all those who wish to participate in the democratic process have the correct information needed to do so.

AVON FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY
281 COUNTRY CLUB ROAD
AVON, CT 06001

REGISTER AT
AVONCTLIBRARY.INFO
OR CALL 860-673-9712

UNDERSTAND THE PROCESS

MAKE YOUR VOICE COUNT

BE INFORMED. BE EMPOWERED. BE COUNTED.

Y

Learn who runs elections in the United States, which processes that are specific to Connecticut, and why we have a decentralized, highly varied nature of election administration.

We'll discover why local election officials are the subject matter experts and heart of election administration in the U.S., and also talk about the security measures every jurisdiction takes to make sure information / ballots are safe and secure in the registration, casting, canvassing, and certification processes.

Mara Suttman-Lea, Ph.D. is an associate professor of American politics at Connecticut College who specializes in election administration, local election officials, and voter education in American elections. They will speak to how elections are administered across the United States and highlight what that looks like in Connecticut, speaking to the security measures election officials take to safeguard the process from registration to certification.

Please register, so we can set the community room up with appropriate seating.

IN THE COMMUNITY ROOM AT THE
AVON FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY
281 COUNTRY CLUB ROAD
AVON, CT 06001