Climb mountains not so the world can see you, but so you can see the world.
