

WELCOME

Extend a warm welcome to UUCW's newest members!

Susan Barranco (on left)

Susan enjoys reading, listening to political podcasts, and swimming. She and Chloe are the proud parents of Beatrice and August. Susan is a Marquette law graduate and a managing partner for the Milwaukee office of Hennessy and Roach, P.C., an insurance defense law firm.
(Joined October 6, 2019)

Chloe enjoys cooking, listening to less political podcasts, and going to the WAC. Susan and Chloe are the proud parents of Beatrice (7) and August (3). Chloe is a double Demon (bachelors/masters from DePaul) and is a teacher at the elementary level.

Kiara Caldwell

Kiara enjoys sailing, playing tennis, gardening with native plants, and organizing bike rides. She grew up at UUCW with her mom, Patricia McFarland and her brothers. She and her husband Mike have a daughter named Anya who named their puppy Kwazii. Kiara is passionate about lakes and water quality, has sailed on most of Lake Michigan, and has dropped remote submarine equipment on the mid-lake reef to explore fish habitat.

Mary Catanese

Unitarian Universalism provides what Mary has been looking for; a congregation that only needs the Golden Rule to live by. Mary is excited to bring her granddaughter into a group that will inspire compassion and spirituality. Her grandson, Mitchell (10) has Autism and she hopes to one day bring him into the fold as well.
