

People in Mission Scholarship 2021 Application Form

Statement of purpose:

The "People in Mission" scholarship/grant from Covenant Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, NC is a local internship designed to connect Faith and Poverty. This local internship is designed for 10 weeks from June 1 to August 6, 2021. Local recipients will meet weekly with church staff to process their service in the community through the reading of Luke and other applicable readings. This internship is administered by the ministry of Mission and Outreach. It is intended to give the recipient the opportunity to serve God and others, and understand where faith and poverty intersect. The program consists of four interns.
