Max Matheu wins coveted scholarship

St. Petersburg College Spring 2018 Graduate Max Matheu was one of only 47 students nationwide who received the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation's Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship. This highly competitive national scholarship will provide Matheu with up to $40,000 annually for a maximum of three years to complete his bachelor's degree. Matheu served as the president of the Honors Program Student Consortium this year. He also interned for Congressman Charlie Crist and the Borgen Project. He will be attending the University of Florida in the fall, and he plans to double major in economics and political science.
