

Mathematics Re-Design Institute

Florida Mathematics Re-Design Institute

Thursday, June 27, 2019

Hilton University of Florida Conference Center, Gainesville, FL

Objectives

- Bring together district, college and university stakeholders with national organizations, policymakers and experts from other states to engage in a cross-functional discussion about mathematics pathways re-design;
- Highlight recommendations for state policy, institutional (or local) policy and evidence-based practices designed for scale; and
- Encourage participants to reflect on how their institution is making progress in reducing barriers to student success in mathematics, and identify strategies to take back to their institutions for consideration.
