

Explore Free Adult Education Classes This Fall!

Whether you want to take your career to the next level or explore higher education, Chicago Public Library's free GED, HiSET, ESL and ABE classes are the perfect way to unlock new opportunities.

In partnership with City Colleges of Chicago and UIC's Center for Literacy, we're bringing adult education classes to select branches where you can:

- Prepare for the GED or HiSET and earn your diploma equivalency
- Improve your English skills (ESL/ELL) at all levels
- Strengthen your reading, writing and math skills through Adult Basic Education

Who can join?

- Illinois residents ages 18+
- Some programs may allow younger learners (ages 16 to 17) with school separation forms

Ready to get started?

Scan for details on:

- How to register
- Class schedules
- Participating library locations

Can't attend in person?
Scan to explore CPL's free digital learning tools for continuing education:

