

Thank you for trusting me Julie! I have truly tried as hard as I can to make Happy Hour something everyone would love. I have tried my very best to take care of what you passed on to me. I am a yogi, but it was my goal to take care of my new Pilates family. This was their place first and I respect that and tried to keep that my priority as much as I possibly could. I would have failed without Pilates and I would have failed if I didn't include my passion, yoga. To those of you who stuck around while I got my footing, THANK YOU! I know there's always room for improvement, and I will continue to try my best to merge the two into one wonderful yoga/Pilates studio, of course never forgetting Xtend, orbit, TRX, etc.

I realize our studio is a second home to so many wonderful clients, as well as myself. The part of this job I have come to love the most, is YOU, my clients. Getting to know all of you has been truly amazing and I don't throw that word around lightly, it truly has been AMAZING. What a wonderful group of loving, caring, friendly, kind people you are. I love the way you welcome new people with open arms. I watch when someone new walks in the studio and I'm so proud of how they are always greeted with such warmth and love. Thank you!

And, to the teachers, the ones who have been here longer than me and stayed with me, THANK YOU SO VERY MUCH! You've helped me and made me feel very comfortable. I know why you are loved so much. To the new teachers, your dedication to what you do and to Happy Hour blows me away. I promised myself if I bought the studio, my kids would remain above everything else in my life. I would love to be at every class, but until they're older, I just can't. They have been through many changes this past year, and they need to know they're my number one focus. Because of the teachers we have, I'm able to keep this promise to them. I don't ever have to worry about a thing at the studio, I know everything is taken care of. I am so very fortunate to have these wonderful people on this team with me.

We are all so lucky to have the group of talented, caring people to come to each day. I could never pay you enough for what you give to me and the clients at Happy Hour. YOU make Happy Hour what it is. Thank you! Sincerely!

With that being said, teachers and clients, if there is ever anything I can do to make your experience at Happy Hour better or more enjoyable, please let me know. I am always open to suggestions and feedback. Thank you again for such a great year EVERYONE. Cheers to another great year to come!
