By subscribing to our email lists you are saying you trust us. We are committed to honoring that trust. You can trust us not to share your information with anyone within or without the organization without your prior approval and that sharing would be limited to such things as a membership directory or for internal Church use to serve you better and advance the ministry of the Fellowship and the Congregation.

If at any time you wish to receive fewer email or emails less frequently simply update your profile (there is a link at the bottom of every email to enable this) or hit reply if your particular need cannot be met through that avenue.
