Divine Mercy University understands your commitment to faith and service. We have would like to offer a tuition reduction to those associated with Courage, EnCourage and the Truth and Love Conferences. We hope the Holy Spirit is drawing more people to serve the mental health needs of people with same sex attraction.

Our University is committed to mental health rooted in the Catholic understanding of the human person, the family, and society. Our goal is to help ensure as many parishes, communities, and dioceses as possible have excellent mental health support. In view of this goal we would like to offer Courage a 20% tuition reduction for those who are admitted to our programs.

Clergy and employees of Courage may be eligible for additional reduction.

Last year we gave over 614K worth of Scholarships and Grants. Come see why we are ranked top 20 in the USA for Psychology and Counsleing.
