

Prayer Shawls and Squares Available

Thanks to our devoted community of knitters and crocheters, there are prayer shawls and squares available in Redeemer. The shawls and squares are knitted with prayer by parishioners of the church and blessed so that those in need may feel wrapped in God's love.

Who can request a prayer shawl or square? Anyone! You can request a prayer shawl for yourself, a family member, or friend. This ministry extends to the larger community and can be requested for someone who is not a member of Redeemer.

When is a prayer shawl or square used? They are often given to someone who is experiencing an illness, loss, or difficult time in their life. However, a prayer shawl or square can also be given to a person for joyful occasions, such as the birth or adoption of a new family member.

How do I request a prayer shawl or square? You can call the church offices at (804) 379-8889 or email The Rev. Grace Rigby at grace@redeemermidlothian.org.
