Employee Recognition

Batesville Tool & Die's Bob Holtel Named a "125 Face of Indiana Manufacturing"

Batesville, IN – Batesville Tool & Die, Inc. (BTD) is proud to announce that Bob Holtel, President of BTD, has been named one of the "125 Faces of Indiana Manufacturing" by the Indiana Manufacturers Association (IMA). The recognition is part of IMA's year-long celebration of its 125th anniversary, honoring 125 manufacturing professionals from across the state for their contributions to the industry.

Bob has been a dedicated employee of Batesville Tool & Die, Inc. for more than 40 years, starting his career as a Die Maintenance Associate in 1985. With hard work and commitment, he worked his way through many roles, including Vice President of Tooling and President of Mexico Operations. Today, Bob serves as President of Batesville Tool & Die, Inc. and a member of the company's Board of Directors.

"I can't begin to describe how vital Bob has been in the success of our Company. He has conducted himself professionally and fairly for his entire tenure. It would be hard to find anyone more dedicated. Thanks, Bob!"
– Jody Fledderman, CEO, Batesville Tool & Die, Inc.

BTD congratulates Bob on this well-deserved recognition and thanks him for his decades of leadership and dedication to the company and the manufacturing industry.
