

OUTDOOR GAME NIGHT

Here are a few ideas for hosting your own (OR DAY!) outdoor games with your neighbors:

- 1. Candy Balloon Relay- For this outdoor game, divide everyone into two teams. Give each player a balloon with a piece of candy stuffed inside. Each player must run to a designated spot, pop their balloon, open their candy, eat and swallow their candy and run back to tag the next player. First team to pop all their candy balloons wins!
*Be sure to choose candies that are not considered choking hazards.
- 2. Water Balloon Dodge Ball- It's dodge ball, but with water balloons! Simple, fun, and a LOT less painful than traditional dodge ball!!
- 3. Blanket Drag Race- Grab some blankets and attempt to pull your teammate across the lawn as fast as you possibly can. Obviously things will be a lot easier if your partner is under 4 feet tall!
- 4. Glow In the Dark Bowling- This fun and simple idea will be a hit with kids. You can make your own glow-in-the-dark bowling set! Find all the instructions here.
- 5. Outdoor Pictionary- Place a giant chalkboard or dry erase board outside and play Pictionary!
- 6. Drip, Drip, Dunk- A fun twist to Duck, Duck Goose. Instead of repeating "Duck, Duck, Goose," players will repeat "Drip, Drip, DUNK!" On "DUNK!" the person who is "it" dumps water on the person's head!
- 7. Balloon Stomp- Players have a balloon tied to each of their ankles and everyone runs around the yard trying to pop other players' balloons using their feet. The last one left with an unpopped balloon is the winner!

*Thanks to pintsizedtreasures.com for all the great outdoor game ideas!