

Call to Discipleship – Reflecting on Your Own Unique Calling With Caroline Stratton (an international presenter)

October 16-17, 2020

“Vocation does not come from a voice out there calling me to be something I am not. It comes from a voice in here calling me to be the person I was born to be, to fulfil the original selfhood given me at birth by God.”

— Thomas Merton

Schedule

Friday, 7:00 - 8:30 PM ET

Saturday, 10:00 am until Noon and 3:00 – 4:30 PM ET

The call to discipleship brings to mind the biblical passages of Old and New Testament, from the great prophets to the call of the twelve disciples of Jesus. Called, formed, and sent out by Jesus, these first disciples, through the spoken word, made known to the world the message of Jesus Christ so that we might believe in Him and in the One who sent him. As the story of salvation history unfolds we come to realise that we are in this story. Whatever our age, status or vocation in life, we have been personally called into this time in history where we are being invited to play our part in this great theo-drama. By focusing on the word of God and taking the time to allow it speak to our hearts by way of guided prayer and meditation, this short retreat will give you an opportunity to pause, to listen, to reflect and to consider your response to your own unique calling to be a disciple of Jesus Christ.

“Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while” (Mk 6:31)
