Last year the Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA) hired a national Associate for Disability Justice. Amanda will have an informal discussion sponsored by our Church's Accessibility Task Force by Zoom. All welcome from anywhere, any faith. Your questions & comments encouraged! Or you can just watch anonymously.

Eugene community is invited to view in our Church Sanctuary: 1685 W 13th Ave.

Amanda says, "I am an advocate for disability rights and visibility. I strive to create a welcoming and supportive space for those living with mental health challenges and their families." Amanda is also Minister for High Street UU Church in Macon, GA and the Disability Justice Associate for the UUA Side with Love Organizing Strategy Team. For more about Amanda.

May is Mental Health Awareness Month. Join Amanda and UUCE discussants Rev. Jennifer Youngsun Ryu & ATF Co-Chair David Oaks.

Sponsored by Accessibility Task Force for Unitarian Universalist Church in Eugene. Email to ATF, and we will also add you to our Access News list:
