

International Journal of Management Reviews: Special Issue Call for Papers –

“The Management and Organisation of Philanthropy:

New Directions and Contested Undercurrents “

IJMR is pleased to announce a call for papers for the upcoming special issue 'The Management and Organisation of Philanthropy: New Directions and Contested Undercurrents'.

Submission deadline 25 August 2019

This Special Issue aims to:

- provide an informed understanding of the importance of the study of management and organisation in philanthropic institutions;
- articulate and critique the directions in which management and organisational research perspectives on philanthropy in its institutional settings are heading and
- explore the implications of organisation and management literatures for philanthropy's developing and future roles and conceptualisations in societies and communities, whether as resources benefactor, bridge or barrier.

For further information on this Special Issue, please go to the IJMR website and scroll down to the 'News' section:
