Recognizing the Winners of the 2024 Ordinary Awards

Members of the Board,

The Ordinary Awards, presented by the Virginia Restaurant, Lodging, and Travel Association (VRLTA), celebrate and honor the best in Virginia’s hospitality and tourism industries. From restaurants and hotels to Destination Management Organizations and attractions, these awards will highlight the dedication and excellence that drive the Commonwealth’s vibrant tourism sector. This year, out of nearly 300 nominees, 26 individuals and businesses were recognized as winners.

Far from “ordinary,” the winners of these prestigious awards exemplify exceptional service and leadership in their fields. I am proud to spotlight the Fairfax County honorees: Nancy Longstreth of Hyatt Regency Tysons Corner Center, who earned Hotelier of the Year; The Watermark Hotel in Tysons, named Hotel of the Year; and L’Auberge Chez Francois in Great Falls, which received the President’s Award. Their unparalleled expertise and commitment to providing exceptional experiences for both residents and visitors set high standards for the hospitality and tourism industry across Virginia.

We are proud of our outstanding awardees for their contributions to elevate Virginia’s hospitality and tourism industries as they reflect the very best of Fairfax County and the Commonwealth.

Therefore, I ask that the Office of Public Affairs prepare resolutions to recognize The Ordinary Awards winners to be presented in or outside the Board room.
