CHICAGO, March 11, 2020 - Patrick Blum has been inducted into Marquis Who's Who. As in all Marquis Who's Who biographical volumes, individuals profiled are selected on the basis of current reference value. Factors such as position, noteworthy accomplishments, visibility, and prominence in a field are all taken into account during the selection process.

Mr. Blum is renowned as an attorney with nearly 20 years of expertise in plaintiff civil litigation. At the age of 12, he decided that he wanted to pursue a career in law after watching the Paul Newman film "The Verdict." Driven by a desire to help others and an understanding of how much change lawyers can implement on a social and political level, he attributes his success to having never lost sight of his values or forgetting why he does his work. Initially obtaining a Bachelor of Science from Purdue University, Mr. Blum earned a Doctor of Jurisprudence at the Southwestern University School of Law in 2003.

In 2003, Mr. Blum was admitted to practice law by the State Bar of California, and began his career as an associate of the firm Anesi Ozmon Rodin Novak & Kohen Ltd. In this position, he reviews medical records and other supplemental information, takes depositions and assists staff in addition to meeting with clients and arguing cases. Striving to be approachable and honest to his clients, Mr. Blum describes his work ethic through the mindset of always telling the truth, always answering phone calls and always giving 100% in every case.

Mr. Blum has been recognized among the National Trial Lawyers' Top 40 Under 40 in 2014 and the Top 100 Trial Lawyer in 2017. Moreover, he has been profiled as a Leading Lawyer and an Emerging Lawyer by the Law Bulletin Publishing Company. In 2009, Mr. Blum was admitted to practice law by the Illinois State Bar Association, and has represented cases before the United States District Court for the Central District and Northern District of Illinois.

In the coming years, Mr. Blum plans to remain active with Anesi Ozmon Rodin Novak & Kohen, Ltd., and hopes to become a partner. Believing strongly in the importance of maintaining a personal and professional life balance, he would like to become more selective about the cases he tries in order to spend more time with his family and operate as a volunteer at his church. Additionally, Mr. Blum is a member of the American Association for Justice, the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association and the Association of Plaintiff Interstate Trucking Lawyers of America.
